TIRED AND WORN OUT

Overworked Men and Women Find Benefit in Great Restorant.

Many sufferers from the effects of having done too much, as well as of anxiety and worry, who have little if any capacity for the duties and pleasures of life, find Pepton just the tonic they need.

This real iron tonic combines the great oxidizers and vitalizers of the blood, iron and manganese, with the best substances for steadying the nerves, perfecting the digestion, absorption and assimilation of food, and giving health and strength to the tired, worn-out, pale and nervous.

MANY MINERS CAN'T BE NOTIFIED.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 31.—John Moore, president of the United Mine Workers of Ohio, upon learning that the miners' union had been enjoined from striking tomorrow, declared that thousands of Ohio miners could not be notified in time to prevent them from striking at midnight tonight.

"We have no official notice of the injunction," and if we did have it would be impossible to notify the forty thousand Ohio miners in time," said President Moore. Many of the miners will read of the injunction in the newspapers, he said, but other thousands will not see a newspaper for several days.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Contempt of court proceedings will be brought against the strike leaders if they fail to obey the injunction of the court restraining them from striking, it was learned at the department of justice this afternoon.

Officials refused to comment until the injunction had become effective, but they cited the Debs case in which an injunction against a strike was disobeyed and contempt of court proceedings followed.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 31.—Determination of the nation's soft coal miners to strike has reached a point where it is beyond the power of any force to prevent the cessation of work at midnight tonight, according to Frank Farrington, chairman of the miners' scale committee.

PUEBLO, Colo., Oct. 31.—H. C. Stewart, secretary of the United Mine Workers of District 15 when informed of the issuing of the temporary injunction, announced that no official comment would be made until after the district officers had received official announcement from acting President Lewis at Indianapolis.

ORDERED TO PROCEED WITH MINE WALKOUT BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 31.—United Mine Workers of America will disregard the injunction ordering them not to strike, according to J. R. Kennamer, president of the Alabama district, who said he had received instructions from Indianapolis this afternoon to proceed with the walkout.

HONOR GENERAL MCCAIN

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—As a token of appreciation of his work as adjutant-general during the war, members of the Sixty-fifth Congress have presented a set of silver to Major-General McCain.

NINETEEN MEN IN COAL MINE DEAD, IS BELIEF

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE. AMSTERDAM, Oct. 31.—After having been entombed forty-eight hours, little hope is held out that the nineteen miners entombed in the Y and O mine here are still alive. Without food and with the greater part of the mine flooded with water poured into the shaft, mine officials early today said they believed few if any of the men could have survived. Rescue parties working in relay, are nearing the entry where the men are thought to be.

German Agent Given Six-Year Sentence

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS. LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE. FREDERICKTOWN, N. B., Oct. 31.—Werner Horne, the German agent who attempted to blow up the Canadian Pacific bridge over the St. Croix river, between Maine and New Jersey, was sentenced to from six to ten years in the federal prison today. Horne immediately entered a formal protest. He claimed his act was one of warfare, as Canada, a British dominion, was at war with Germany, and he was an officer in the German army.

K. L. O. S. to Enjoy Hallowe'en Dance

Hallowe'en will not be overlooked by the Knights and Ladies of Security, Oakland Council No. 73, who are giving a dance this evening at their hall, 1818 Grove street. Stress Cinnamond is chairman of the committee on arrangements. All Knights and Ladies are invited to join the merrymaking.

BAY POINT SHIP STRIKE BELIEVED NEAR SETTLEMENT

BAY POINT, Oct. 31.—Prospects for an immediate ending of the shipyard strike at Bay Point, were brought to a focus last night by a meeting of the boilermakers' union here, at which a semi-official statement from the yard officials was received.

As a result a meeting of all the craft employed at the yard has been called to meet at Bay Point at 3:30 tomorrow morning.

That this is the entering wedge of a settlement of the strike at Clyde and in the bay district is predicted by ship yard workers.

The meeting called by the boilermakers last night was for the purpose of taking definite steps toward ending the strike. The semi-official statement from the company was to the effect that it could not deal with a single union but the inference was strong that the officials would be glad to meet representatives of all the crafts.

Sentiment last night among workers was for ending the strike. Tomorrow several important questions under this head will probably be put to a vote of all the men.

EASTBAY SOCIETY NEWS

Dancing Parties Interest Society All Saints' Eve

Dances for the subdebutantes; dances for the younger married set; dances at the country club—in sorority and fraternity houses in Berkeley, and for the school set at many homes about the city. All of which gives promise that tonight will be one of the happiest of the month, when All Saints' eve will be duly observed everywhere in the land. Black cats and witches, jack o' lanterns will play their part in festive decorations in club and home. Out at the Town and Gown Club in Berkeley Miss Florence Woodley will have many of her college friends and others from about the bay as her guests, whom she has bidden to meet Mrs. Martin Wade and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Juster, the latter formerly Miss Alice Wright.

The Home Club in Fourth Avenue Heights is to be the setting for a large party of the married set when a trio of Eastbay matrons and their husbands will share the duties of host and hostess. These are Mr. and Mrs. William W. Crane, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Littleton Hinman and Mr. and Mrs. Elly Jay Wagon. Assisting them will be Dr. and Mrs. Charles A. Dukes, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Simpson and Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Sturges. About three hundred guests will be present at the dance and supper party.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rodolph in Fifth Avenue and East Fourteenth street, Miss Doris Rodolph will entertain a number of the school set at a dancing party. Several dinner parties are to precede the party, one of which will be that at the Frederick Allard home in Crocker Highlands when Mr. and Mrs. Allard will entertain for their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Allard.

DANCE IN ROCKRIDGE HOME.
In Rockridge Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Beamer have sent out cards for a large party to be held tonight at their home, when members of the Claremont set will be guests of a group of friends who have shared the festivities of the seasons past together. Supper will be served at midnight.

Another costume party is that for which Mrs. A. T. Kales has sent out invitations, forty of the married set to be guests this evening at the Kales home.

Two dances of the college set are those at the Delta eta sorority chapter house and another given by the Sigma Delta. This, the latter having the Claremont Country Club for its setting.

Miss Ruth Martin and Miss Abigail Martin will be the guests of a dance tomorrow evening at 5244 James avenue, when thirty-six of the high school set will be guests at the home.

a yama yama party. The unmasking will be at 10:30 o'clock and the evening's revelry will terminate in the serving of a midnight supper.

DINNER PARTIES AT SUTRO HOME.
To honor Mr. and Mrs. William Nichols of New York, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Sutro of Piedmont were hosts to a dinner party last evening, and besides the honor guests and hosts, guests were set for Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Pillsbury, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gilman Norris, Mrs. Denis O'Sullivan and a number of others. Rose pink chrysanthemums were arranged in low silver bowls.

At a similar affair when Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gilman Norris were honor guests, and among those Representation Is Demanded by Clubs of Women

By EDNA B. KINARD
The demand for democracy and a fuller guarantee of representation in government has not left unscathed even the women's organizations. The restlessness and discontent which is found throughout the whole social mass is reflected even in the feminine ranks which have appointed unto themselves special volunteer missions. Perhaps, this spirit of dissatisfaction with the old time mode of choosing leaders by way of deputized authority has found its most concrete expression in Oakland Federation of Mothers Clubs. So determined has been the urge for reform in election laws that a revision of the constitution has been effected. As the law now stands within the important body, representation is immediate and direct. Nominating committees have been done away with by popular vote. Hereafter candidates for election will be named from the floor. Any accredited delegate has the privilege of lifting her voice when the matter of leadership is in question without fear of offense to the committee on nominations which in the federation has itself been elected from the floor to prepare the lists of candidates.

No objection was raised when the new matter came before the federation for ratification. It was agreed that the direct nomination was the fairest and most representative mode for conducting elections. No arguments were advanced that club politics might operate even in the event of the direct ballot, perhaps already there is being done to anticipate a political coup. The election in the spring will try out the new method.

Appointment of Mrs. W. T. Cleveland as the personal representative of Mayor Louis Bartlett of Berkeley at the conference of mayors in Sacramento this week will be discussed with interest by the women of the Bay cities. Without a doubt it is the women who have borne the burden of making the dollar do its duty and who have squeezed it until the dollar has screamed many a time and out to reach to milk and eggs and other necessities. Recognition recorded one of their senses in being invited to sit with the official body and have a part in its deliberations. This has given considerable satisfaction.

Plans are being perfected to organize a Housewives' League in Alameda where already there is being carried on an unauthorized boycott of certain high priced commodities including eggs.

With the first of November, the preliminary bulletin in which will be the monthly publication of the California Civic League will be ready for distribution. The official organ of the state-wide body designed to be circulated among the members of the various auxiliaries for the purpose of creating a greater solidarity among women in their public interests will be put forward by the education committee with Mr. O. E. Chaney the editor.

Educational work as interpreted by the civic leaders does not mean ability to read and write alone. It means efficiency in citizenship, equality for men and women alike, intimacy with the institutions of the nation and their government and

Capsized Vessel Believed U. S. Ship
BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 31.—A vessel which was seen floating bottom up off the Southern Brazilian coast is believed to be the American wooden steamship Benavola.

Despatches from Rio Janeiro report that the Benavola, bound from the United States with a cargo of gasoline for Rio Janeiro, has for some time been overdue. The fate of the crew of the capsized vessel is not known.

The Benavola is a wooden vessel and belongs to the United States Shipping Board, but is under charter to the Triangle Steamship Company. Her gross tonnage is 3920. She was built at Astoria, Ore., this year.

knowledge of the vital questions of local or wider import. It is to these interests that the California Civic League publication will be devoted. Quite modest in appearance it will be, but an effort will be made to make it invaluable in the educational propaganda which is going forward among the women.

November will not witness the inauguration of the educational programs for which Oakland Federation of Mothers' Clubs is reserving the first Tuesday in each month. Mrs. B. L. Hoffman, chairman of the department on education, has announced that the series of winter lectures which will deal with subjects of moment will open on Tuesday, December 2. The November meeting was to have been given over to a debate on the League of Nations and the covenant of peace. Unable to obtain the speakers whom she desired, Mrs. Hoffman canceled the Tuesday program.

Santa has a new home in the Basement Store

It is much larger and better furnished than his old one. He is anxious to have all his little friends come and see it.

All week Santa has had hosts of workmen getting busy for his big reception Saturday. His new home has been elaborately decorated, it's bright and gay, and nobody can entertain quite like Santa Claus because he has so many things with which to delight the children.

Saturday the little folks will be greeted by the animals in motion, the trains will run on regular schedule, the dolls will all be dressed up in their best, and Santa has a gift for each little child. Remember the hour is 10:30 in the morning and Santa will come again at 2:30 in the afternoon.

Dolls!

In endless profusion. Never has Doll-dom been more cosmopolitan or more democratic. Here in close association are the little rag dollies and the queenly, haughty ladies who look down from a height of 26 inches and whose real hair and eyelashes make them queens of Doll-dom. The cunningest of character baby dolls, full jointed dolls, all-wool dolls and stuffed body dolls form a corps of attendants that make a most royal court.

Doll Vehicles

Dollie can choose her own conveyance. It can be either a collapsible go-cart, an English perambulator, a doll cab, doll oriole, or sulky.

Doll Hospital

Dolls who are sick and in need of repair may receive here the attention of an expert doll doctor.

Write a letter to Santa Claus and drop it in his postoffice when you come Saturday

Dollie's Wardrobe Accessories

Dresses, Sweaters, Knit Caps, Booties, Rompers, Shoes, Stockings and Jewelry Sets—everything to refit dollie's wardrobe and bring it up to the minute in style.

Wheeled Goods

Santa has come roaded down with wheeled goods for the boys and girls. Velocipedes, Tricycles, Coasters, Hand Cars, Scooters, Automobiles, Iron Wagons, Wood Wagons and Coaster Wagons.

GAMES—All the newest, best and most entertaining.

JUDGES MARCH WITH FORMER SERVICE MEN

Superior court judges of Alameda county will march with the ex-service men of the army, navy and marines on November 11, when the entire city turns out to view the "Civics Parade" as it moves through the principal streets of Oakland as a feature of the Armistice Day celebration planned by the civic welfare committee.

The announcement of the intention of the superior court judges to take part in the parade was made today by Colonel J. K. Ritter, grand juror of Oakland's second division, construction. Colonel Ritter also stated that there will be representations from the police and fire departments of Oakland. Chief of Police Lynch will march at the head of a platoon of police.

NATIVE SONS IN UNIFORM. The Athens Parlor No. 195 of the Native Sons of the Golden West yesterday joined the list of fraternal organizations which are to participate in the "Civics Parade" on November 11. The members of the organization will march in uniform. A band of twenty-five pieces also will be seen in the parade.

One of the features of the parade will be the float of the Young Women's Christian Association. The float will be draped with appropriate symbols in honor of the day and will contain some of the city's prettiest maidens. A number of the girls also will march in a body.

A representation from the Salvation Army, which won the praise of the army, navy and marine boys during the war, will be seen in the parade, as will the members of the Elks and the Moose.

The time in its history.

Mayors Ask New State Food Laws Urge Extra Session of Legislature

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 31.—The conference of mayors which met here to consider the high cost of living adjourned yesterday afternoon after adopting a resolution asking Governor Stephens to call "another extraordinary session of the legislature" immediately after the adjournment of the session which opens Saturday, for the express purpose of considering and enacting laws against profiteering and enacting such legislation as will permit the declaring of milk a public utility. The adoption of the resolutions came at the end of hours of debate in which all phases of the food problem were discussed. The vote of the mayors and their proxies was 11 to 7.

At the morning session the conference of mayors passed a resolution inviting 25 delegates to the meeting of farmers also in session here to discuss the same problem, to come into the session of the legislature. During the roll-call on the resolution it became evident that the farmers' votes would defeat the plan to request an extra session of the legislature. The roll-call was interrupted and a motion was adopted rescinding the invitation to the farmers.

The American Legion of Oakland will be seen in a parade when the members march in the "Civics Parade" on November 11. J. W. (Jack) Rose, chairman of the committee in charge of the Legion's participation in the parade announced yesterday that more than 1000 members had signed up for the street demonstration.

Oakland's British war veterans also will take an active part in the parade. The Y. M. C. A. has decided to send a delegation, and from thirty to forty secretaries will be seen in the parade. Officers and men of the British war veterans who served in the war are requested to register for the "Civics Parade" at the Liberty Hut, Fourteenth street and San Pablo avenue. The hut is open every day until 8 p. m.

ARTHUR P. KARBACH, director of the third Red Cross Roll Call, that begins work November 2.

Plans for the third Red Cross roll call have been completed and hundreds of representatives but await November 2 to launch a brisk patriotic campaign which will put the seal of approval upon the important organization.

Final instructions have been given to the workers and the equipment distributed which will be used in the drive which will extend to November 11, Armistice Day, which will be celebrated throughout the bay cities.

It is understood that while overseas underlings which have been initiated will be concluded. Hundreds of the national roll call will be devoted in large part to work in this country.

Oakland's quota for the third enrollment under the Red Cross banner is 30,000. Arthur P. Karchach, chairman of the campaign committee, is confident that the registration will be made with little difficulty. Hundreds of library slips have been provided by the Pacific division to free libraries and the local book stores with a request that all books being distributed on Saturday carry one.

The roll call proper opens on Sunday, which is church day. From the pulpits of all the churches pastors and special speakers will explain the peace program and the reconstruction work which the national organization must undertake.

Wife Thought Him Dead 21 Years He Was Only Hiding in Alameda

Alameda as a refuge for the unhappily wed is prominently mentioned in two San Francisco divorce suits. In one case a husband hid in the Encinal city for 21 years while his wife thought him dead. He "came to life" again, she said, when he strayed to Market street, San Francisco, and his wife glimpsed him. The husband fled back to Alameda, but a detective eventually found him there.

This was the story of Mrs. Annie Gannon. Judge Dunne granted her a divorce from William P. Gannon on grounds of failure to provide.

Mrs. Gannon said that a daughter was born shortly after her husband's disappearance. The girl is now 20 years old.

In the other case the wife sought a haven in Alameda. Samuel Ran, proprietor of an electrical fixture business, filed answer to the divorce suit of his wife, Mrs. Mary Ran, asserting that she left him to live with Leo Woloveke in Alameda and confessed to him that she loved Woloveke. For five weeks, he alleges, his wife resided at 478 Central avenue with Woloveke.

Five Arrested for French Coin Corner

PARIS, Oct. 30 (By the Associated Press).—With the arrest today of five speculators in silver coin the small change crisis in Paris seems to have passed. The police locked up five men purchasing silver coins from street car and auto bus conductors, waiters and other persons. The trail led to a bank where the silver was melted. One silver bar weighing fifty pounds, still bearing the marks of one and two franc pieces was found. At the Antenne race course today the racing public was informed that each person must have the exact amount of the admission fee. Two francs would be reserved for the pari-mutuel machines, which had been unable to pay several winning tickets owing to the lack of silver.

Mercy Flavors Albany Justice Fine Suspended When Victim Wails

ALBANY, Oct. 31.—John H. Paul, Albany's justice of the peace, believes in being accommodating whenever he can.

Last night H. A. Franz of Richmond, appeared before the judge, charged with parking his automobile in a restricted area.

"But, your honor," protested the witness, "We don't have laws like that in Richmond. It's unjust that I should be arrested."

Accommodatingly the judge held up court while he delved into his law books and read and explained the ordinance to the defendant. And then he imposed a fine of $2.

EASES A COLD WITH ONE DOSE

"Pape's Cold Compound" Then Breaks Up a Cold in a Few Hours

Relief comes instantly. A dose taken every two hours until the cold is taken usually breaks up a severe cold and ends all the grippe misery.

The very first dose opens your clogged-up nostrils and the air passages in the head, stops nose running, relieves the headache, dullness, feverishness, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed-up! Quit blowing and sniffling! Clear your congested head! Nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only a few cents at any drug store. It acts without assistance, tastes nice, contains no quinine—insist upon Pape's—Advertisement.

JOYFUL EATING

Unless your food is digested without the aftermath of painful acidity, the joy is taken out of both eating and living.

KI-MOIDS

are wonderful in their help to the stomach troubled with over-acidity. Pleasant to take—relief prompt and definite.

RICH AUSTRALIA WOMAN ARRIVES WITH 42 TRUNKS

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—Mrs. O. C. Jordan, wife of Anthony Jordan, the Wand-maker of Australia, holds a baggage record on the San Francisco waterfront. She arrived yesterday from Australia on the Tonio Bar, en route with her sister, Miss A. G. Monie to London.

Forty-two trunks were among their luggage. Custom house searchers are celebrating a pre-Christmas record by the arrival of a woman of the Antipodes does not arrive every day.

Mrs. Paul Clement also arrived on the Tonio yesterday with her husband, Lieutenant Clement. The couple are en route to Paris. When the officer was injured by a fall from an aeroplane in Japan Mrs. Clement some weeks ago rushed through San Francisco on a record trip. She found her husband recovered from the injuries which he had received.

MISSOURI MULE GOES OVER TOP, MALTREATS REDS

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—went over the top in Siberia is brought back by W. O. Reed, returning on the liner Tanya Mara. He says the force with which he was associated captured a hospital at Alexandrovsk where they found ten injured Bolsheviks. Lusting the injuries and causing the death of one, the mule had been previously captured when it bolted the American division to which it was attached.

The Bolshevik, however, didn't know the proper cuss words by which to run a mule. They tried to run him on Russian substitutes. He broke two men's ribs, the arms of two others and fractured the jaw of a fifth.

"A little later a party of Bolsheviks approached us," says Reed, "to make an exchange of prisoners. They were willing to surrender about two to our one only we had to take the mule too."

Native Sons Guests of Native Daughters

Aloha Parlor Native Daughters of the Golden West gave a Halloween party for Athens Parlor Native Sons of the Golden West last night in their clubrooms in the Pacific building. The winners in the cake walk were Miss Katie Rutherford and R. Gerard Barnett.

The dancing was followed with a supper in the banquet hall. Chris Fox, an active worker in the membership campaign of the Native Sons, which is now under way, gave an interesting talk on the restoration of the California missions.

C. F. Corrigan said the plans were complete for a benefit for the homeless children fund. M. S. Murphy Stevens told of the proposed two parlors during the winter carnival. Dr. Victor, Derrier, grand marshal of the N. D. G. W. spoke on the order of Native Daughters.

L. A. Somers, manager of the Coast Equitable Company of San Francisco, a more thoroughly convinced than ever of the "chick" of a home. With Francis H. W. and a party of the Oakland branch of the Coast Equitable Company and William W. Keith, agent for the company, he left his automobile in a garage at a local hotel yesterday to find when he returned from the office that his automobile was missing.

The day before the car was stolen Keith had prevailed upon Somers to have the machine insured against theft.

There is a lot of talk here that cars cannot be stolen if they are carried across running water.

HAD SUFFERED THIRTY YEARS

Tried Every Medicine She Ever Heard of. Restored to Health By Taking Tanlac

"I have been in poor health for thirty years and have tried every treatment and medicine that I heard recommended for my kind of trouble but I never got any relief until I commenced taking Tanlac," said Mrs. Kimmie, who lives at 609 Deborah street, Los Angeles, California, while talking to a Tanlac representative a few days ago.

"When I commenced taking Tanlac," continued Mrs. Kimmie, "I had given up all hope of ever being a woman again after suffering as I did for thirty years. I can hardly realize that it is all over and that I am now enjoying perfect health again. I had very bad case of indigestion and stomach trouble. In just a short time after I ate anything I would be so badly bloated up with gas that I could hardly get a good breath and my heart would palpitate something awful on account of this gas pressing up against it. Then at times I would have severe pains in the pit of my stomach. I was very nervous and at night I was so restless I couldn't get enough sleep to do me any good. I was badly constipated and had to take a laxative every day of my life. In fact I had reached the point where I was perfectly miserable all the time and was so discouraged over my condition I didn't know what to do."

"I heard of a lady who had suffered just like I did and she had been greatly relieved by taking Tanlac, and I naturally thought that if this medicine had done her so much good it ought to help me so I commenced taking it. Well, I can truthfully say that when I had finished my first bottle of Tanlac I was feeling like a different person. I continued to take Tanlac and continued to improve right along and now since taking six bottles I feel like a new woman."

"I am as well and strong as I ever was in my life. I never have a sign of indigestion or stomach trouble of any kind. My appetite is fine and I eat heartily, meals every day, and everything I eat agrees with me perfectly. My nerves are all right now, and I sleep just fine every night. I have more confidence in Tanlac than any medicine I have ever seen, and am more than glad to recommend it to everybody."

Tanlac is sold in San Francisco and Oakland by the Owl Drug Company stores.—Advertisement.

ACIDS IN STOMACH CAUSE INDIGESTION

Create Gas, Sourness and Pain How to Treat.

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning gas bloating, nausea, etc., are caused by acids in the stomach. The acids in the stomach are not as some believe to a lack of digestive juices. The accurate stomach lining is irritated. Digestion is delayed and food hours causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well.

Artificial digestants are not needed in such cases and may do real harm. Try Resinol and you will get a real and lasting relief from any digestive troubles. Resinol is a natural product of the stomach lining and it takes a long time to form. It is a natural product of the stomach lining and it takes a long time to form. CHINESE GIRL ARRESTED IN 'SLAVE' HUNT

The long arm of the law reached out this morning to the Chinese quarter of Oakland to stop a nefarious traffic which federal authorities believed to be getting underway. In fact, in the wake of pretty Wong Ying, Chinese girl taken into custody at 510 Harrison street, a number of Chinese girls, they believe, were to be brought to this city.

Two Chinese, Lum Hoy Yung and Lo Sim, were also arrested. They are charged with transporting the girls here from China.

Behind the arrests is a long and secret investigation which has been conducted by Miss Donaldina Cameron, in charge of the Presbyterian Chinese Mission in San Francisco, and John Robinson, of the United States immigration service. The investigation is not yet ended. Other results, more startling than Wong Ying's arrest, are rumored as imminent.

SUSPICIONS AROUSED.

Miss Cameron and Robinson have been at work on this case for some weeks, and it has led them at times through some of the blackest mazes of which crafty Oriental conspiracy is possible. They knew almost the time the girl was landed, supposedly to become the bride of a Chinese already in this country. Circumstances connected with her arrival, however, aroused their suspicions, and they kept as close watch as possible upon her movements.

At first these investigations were confined to San Francisco, and in the Chinese quarter there Wong Ying made her home and seemed about to comply with the regulations

BUSINESS MEN AT VISALIA TO BUILD HOUSES

VISALIA, Oct. 31.—To meet an acute shortage of homes here twenty-five business men formed what is to be known as the Visalia Building Corporation, which is now completing its organization. It will attempt to guarantee $100,000 for housing projects.

It is the indirect profits to be realized by this scheme, rather than a high rate of interest to rent-buyers, that appeals to the business men, who will outfit a score or more of young people with houses and furnishings.

which this government has made to protect immigrant Oriental girls. Suddenly she disappeared. Miss Cameron and Robinson renewed their investigation with even greater zeal.

The next trace they had of her was in last at 510 Harrison street. It was still difficult either to secure access to the girl or to prove that she had been brought to this country for immoral purposes. Evidence upon which they could act was at last secured by the investigators.

MAY BE WHISPERS PLOT.

Wong Ying yielded with little demur to her arrest. In the belief of arresting officers, the step came as a great relief to the alien girl. With the two men who were arrested with her, she was taken almost immediately to San Francisco. Although Wong Ying declares she is 25 years of age, her appearance gives no indication that she is nearly so advanced in years as that. In fact, the charge against her is among the offenses provided in the juvenile statutes. Lum Hoy Yung and Lo Sim are accused of a violation of the immigration laws, the transportation of the woman to this country for illicit purposes.

Whether Wong Ying's case is unique, or is a part of a widespread plot to enslave Chinese girls, and bring them to this country, the investigators hope soon to learn. They are probing other clues which have come to light during their work on Wong Ying's case.

ONE KILLED IN RIOTS ON S. F. WATERFRONT

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—One dead and one fatally wounded remained the toll today as a result of three revolver fights growing out of the waterfront strike troubles.

Eight men were arrested and their cases are under consideration. They are charged with assault to commit murder, disturbing the peace and battery.

Police today are exerting themselves to prevent a recurrence of the fatal riots. The man killed and the other fatally injured were members of the Riggers' and Stevedores' Union.

George Briese, age 40, and Walter Sullivan, age 38, were fired upon by a man they believed to be a strikebreaker. Briese was instantly killed. Sullivan lies at the point of death at the harbor emergency hospital.

Sullivan was able to tell the story of the assault. He said that he and Briese were standing on Main street, between Harrison and Folsom, talking to a stranger whom they thought was a non-union worker. Sullivan said no threats were made, but the man suddenly drew a revolver, fired twice and fled. He was described as about 21 years old, weighing 150 pounds, about 5 feet 5 inches tall, dark, smooth shaven and had dark eyes.

A negro strikebreaker is alleged to have fired at a policeman in one case of rioting. Negro workmen precipitated the first trouble when they displayed firearms while going to pier 40 to draw their pay. Two of them in the lead, Andrew Jones and Glen Edwards, came recently from Chicago, where they are said to have participated in the race riots.

A striker is alleged to have called out to "get" the negroes and to have started for one of them. A negro fired, but the shot went wild. Foreman Thomas Reagan hurried up, and the negroes informed him they would kill him if he tried to disarm them. One fired as Reagan advanced, the bullet hitting the ground.

Captain Layne went from the harbor police station with reinforcements, and twenty policemen gathered in the negroes.

Court to Adjourn for Auto Ride Coppage Holdings to Be Visited

Superior Judge Everett J. Brown, attorneys and principals in the divorce suit of Mrs. Mary Shields Coppage, 3014 Dana street, Berkeley, against Charles Lyndon Coppage, investor, clubman and former sales manager for the Associated Oil Company, will go automobiling together tomorrow morning.

They will tour Berkeley, inspecting properties that were turned over to Mrs. Coppage by her husband at the time of their separation last February. A difference of opinion as to the value of the several houses and lots involved developed at the trial. Mrs. Coppage said they did not exceed $17,000 in value, while Mr. Coppage placed the amount at about $29,000.

Eleventh hour discovery of 250 shares of stock in the Continental Petroleum Refining Company, which Attorney Stanley Moore, counsel for Mrs. Coppage, had been endeavoring to trace, marked the close of the taking of testimony yesterday afternoon.

Mystery had surrounded the whereabouts of this valuable stock. Don Carlos Musser, secretary and treasurer of the Continental Petroleum Company, a separate corporation from the refining company, testified that 250 shares in the refining company had been turned over to the petroleum company in return for a loan of $100,000. The agreement called for the delivery of 1000 shares for this sum.

Miss Eleanor Tourtelot, secretary for the refining company, then took the stand and testified that 500 shares had been turned over to the petroleum company, making a discrepancy of 250 shares, and as Attorney Moore had been endeavoring to find if Coppage owned any of the refining company stock this seemed significant.

Musser telephoned over from San Francisco just before adjournment yesterday, that he had found the extra 250 shares in a sealed envelope in the safe of the petroleum company.

Another feature of the last minutes of the trial was the testimony of Coppage that a "Mr. Scott" mentioned in the depositions was W. R. Scott, federal manager for the Southern Pacific. Scott, it was brought out, married a sister of Mrs. Coppage and he gave to Coppage many valuable tips on financial ventures.

The arguments in the case will be heard Monday when the opposing attorneys will sum up the testimony and give their ideas on the wealth of Coppage and the alimony that he should be called upon to pay.

Baldness

—Is rapidly increasing—says Prof. John H. Austin, Chicago bacteriologist, hair and scalp specialist, of 40 years' practice—and is in many cases directly or indirectly caused by —a very common scalp trouble. It starts with a scaling of the scalp, sometimes slight, called dandruff, sometimes abundant, producing thick grayish-white or greasy scales—which leads to falling of the hair.

Alopecia Pityrodes

At first when the hair starts to fall, it is hardly noticeable, but as this ailment, Alopecia Pityrodes, becomes deep seated, and the germs multiply, as they always do, the falling of the hair becomes rapid, and in time the top of the head becomes completely bald. Both men and women are equally liable to Alopecia Pityrodes, but particularly in the case of women, it is particularly liable to be seen in the case of 30 and 35 years.

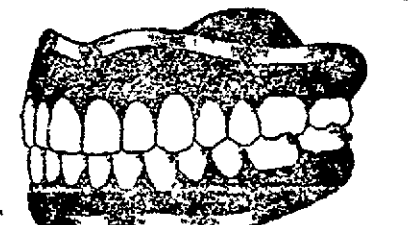

People who are at all troubled with a scaling of the scalp trouble, such as

—Itching Scalp
—Falling Hair
—Excessively Oily Hair
—Dry and Brittle Hair
—Dandruff
—Split Hair
—Gray or Faded Hair

—should have their hair examined at once under a powerful microscope.

Professor Austin says that the use of Chamberlain's Hair Restorer, hair tonic, washing and dressing is like taking medicine without knowing what you are doing. You are invited to take advantage of the FREE MICROSCOPIC EXAMINATION of the hair and scalp in the Prof. Austin method all this week.

Universal Military Training In United States Strongly Advocated by Gen. Pershing

BY UNITED PRESS.
LEASD WIRE TO TRIBUNE.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—General Pershing today declared for universal military training.
"Universal training brings many benefits and such benefits should be universally extended to all of our young men," he said.
Pershing appeared before a joint meeting of the House and Senate military affairs committees to outline his views on the universal military policy of the United States. The program, Pershing declared, should include:
—A permanent military establishment large enough to provide against sudden attack.
—A small force sufficient for expeditionary purposes to meet our international purposes, particularly on the American continent.
—Forces sufficient to cope with any internal disturbances.
—A trained citizen reserve organized to meet the emergencies of war.

A standing army of 275,000 to 300,000 men is ample for the peace time needs of the United States, Pershing declared.
OUTLINES BENEFITS OF TRAINING
Outlining the benefits which he believed would result from the adoption of universal military training, Pershing included:
—Development of physical vigor and manhood, development of mental, decrease of illiteracy, teaching of discipline and respect for constituted authority, development of initiative and better preparation for duties of citizenship. This last benefit, Pershing said, is especially needed in America.
—If America had not been unprepared our rights would not have been violated, Pershing said, and added that this country's success in the war was due to the united determination of the people rather than to any forethought in preparation.
The war has placed this country in a new light, Pershing said. "It is no longer measured by its wealth, its population nor our form of government, but by our purposes to maintain high ideals."

WANTS BROAD POWERS FOR PRESIDENT
Pershing recommended that the broad powers of army reorganization allowed the President during the war-time be continued in peace. This is in accord with the general staff view.
"Such powers are necessary in time of war," he said, "and would be wise in times of peace, with the limitation that the President could not establish or discontinue bureaus."
The number of general staff officers provided for in the army bill is excessive, he said.
He predicted a great future for the air service and said that France, Great Britain and Italy were laying stress on this phase of the army. He declared that the United States would make a very great mistake in allowing the war department to fall behind.
Pershing's figure for a standing army is about half that recommended by Secretary Baker and Chief of Staff March.

Pershing praised the work of the army nurses and said that in recognition of their splendid services "the women should be given rank as high as second lieutenant."
Pershing criticized the work of the general staff during the war and said that previous to the war the staff never functioned.
"The fact that the general staff did not come up to expectations was due to the fact that the nation had no experienced staff men," he said.
"Many of the criticisms aimed at the general staff are well founded, but this is explained by the fact that many things were attempted by the general staff which should have been handled by other departments."
"Bands played a prominent part in the American army," Pershing said. He urged the committee to make ample provision for this branch.

AROUND WORLD DERBY CHIEFS ENROUTE HERE

Members of "round-the-world" derby, who will reach this city tomorrow, will thoroughly inspect Oakland's airfields and incidentally view the sights of the Eastbay cities on an automobile tour.
Oakland will probably be selected as one of the important "hopping off" points for the flight across the Pacific next year, according to advice received by the aviation committee of the Chamber of Commerce this morning.
The commission, headed by Commodore Louis Beaumont, will be greeted at Durant field at the foot of Eighty-second avenue, by a score of airplanes which are owned in the Eastbay cities.
The program for the reception of the derby commission will begin immediately following the luncheon of the Commonwealth Club in the Palace hotel in San Francisco tomorrow. Aviation enthusiasts from the Eastbay section will then escort Commodore Beaumont, Major Chas. Gidden, secretary of the commission, and the other members to this side of the bay. The commission will be taken in automobiles to the plant of the Union Gas Engine Company, where a demonstration of dirigible engines will be made. Durant field will then be inspected and as many members of the commission as desire will be given flights. Durant has turned over two machines to the aviation committee, together with their pilots, Lieutenants J. T. Campbell and R. R. Harding.

The commission will then be taken to Berkeley over the Skyline boulevard and will witness engine testing at the Hall-Scott plant.
POLICE CHIEF IS TO HIT TRAIL OF 'GATE STEALERS' BERKELEY, Oct. 31.—Berkeley's curfew ordinance will be rigidly enforced tonight.

The boy full of Halloween tricks, who thinks it will be a good joke to the somebody's gate to the top of a telegraph pole, had better watch out.
Chief of Police August Vollmer has ordered special details of his officers to be on guard in all parts of the city this evening between 7:30 and 10 p. m. All persons found engaged in pranks endangering life and property will be arrested according to the edict issued by the police chief.

Spain Provides for Seville Exposition

MADRID, Oct. 31.—An appropriation for a Spanish-American exposition at Seville has been approved by the cabinet.
An announcement made in the Spanish chamber of deputies recently by the minister of the interior was to the effect that the celebration of the 400th anniversary of the voyage of Magellan to the new world would take the form of an exposition at Seville in 1920. He said that a Spanish-American congress also would be held there, to which representatives of all the Spanish-American countries could be invited.

PACIFIC PORTS UNITE TO GET MORE VESSELS

With a solid front and a concrete plan of action, all of the big shipping ports on the Pacific Coast have united for the purpose of urging the United States Shipping Board to allocate to this coast its pro rata of the government's new freight and passenger ships. Confident with this in all of the ports are to pull together in an effort to develop the freight and passenger trade of the Pacific to the fullest extent.

The ports were met at a meeting held in San Francisco yesterday to receive the report of a committee appointed to make recommendations.

December 1 has been set as the date for the meeting of the representatives of the various shipping bodies of Pacific Coast ports in Washington, D. C. The committee that reported yesterday was composed of Paul Shoup, San Francisco; C. J. France, Seattle; Marius de Brabant, Los Angeles; J. H. Davis, Tacoma; W. D. B. Hobson, Portland; and James Choate, San Diego. They made a detailed showing of the maps, charts, statistics and arguments that should be produced by each port, covering the shipping both import and export, for the period from 1913 to June of this year. The report was unanimously adopted, but its details were not released for publication.

SINGLE CONTROL ASKED

The logical development would be, it was said, that one trusted agency or control, would in the end, handle singly the interests of all the ports of the coast.

The representatives in Congress of California, Oregon and Washington will be notified that the committee is coming to the National Capital fortified with facts to see that the Pacific Coast shall have its due in maritime development.

These procedures were all agreed upon yesterday at the final meeting. The delegates were from the six big ports on this coast: San Francisco, Seattle, Los Angeles, San Diego, Portland and Tacoma.

JEALOUSIES DISCARDED

In the discussion that followed the submission of the committee's report, it developed that, for the first time in history, the ports of the Pacific leave to one another aside and pull together for "big things" in the development of the merchant marine of the Western sea. It was said that this is only the beginning of co-operation and that in the last analysis, each big port would have to place its control or co-operative movement in the hands of someone in whom everybody had confidence, and that one "big man" or big committee, would have to represent the whole organization in Washington.

INVALID SISTER TO RETAIN HOME

Overcome by the strain of battle instituted by her brother, Herman Peller, against her and her two sisters over a portion of their father's estate, Mrs. Barbara Ingersoll fell to the floor in a dead faint as she was about to take the witness stand in the court of Judge J. J. Trabucco, sitting for Judge L. S. Church.

She was hurried to the judge's chambers and revived.

Peller sought to force his three sisters, Mrs. Ingersoll, Mrs. Henrietta Lowe and Miss Matilda Peller, the latter an invalid, to turn over to him his share of nearly $1500 alleged to be due from the estate of the father, John G. Peller, who died more than fourteen years ago leaving his estate to be divided equally among the four children.

The sisters declared there was a verbal agreement among them that the property should be kept intact and that the invalid sister should be permitted to live in the home, as she was unable to support herself. Peller denied the existence of such an agreement. Judge Trabucco approved the account as rendered, thus recognizing and upholding the asserted agreement.

CROSSED WIRES FIRE 20 HOMES AT SAME TIME

SANTA ANA, Cal., Oct. 31.—Twenty residences in the vicinity of Main and Walnut streets were set afire simultaneously this morning when a power line wire carrying 15,000 volts crossed a local electric lighting circuit of much smaller capacity, causing the fuses in the various houses to burn out. Four of the houses were practically ruined and their furnishings destroyed.

A vulcanizing shop also received serious damage. The total loss was estimated at about $15,000. The entire fire department, aided by citizen volunteers, succeeded in extinguishing the other fires before more serious damage was done.

MAKING OPPORTUNITIES or preparing for opportunities to come is more or less one and the same thing. We have been taking advantage of opportunities to buy NEW and undepreciated merchandise, now offered in the markets, because we prepared for it in the month of September.

Then and there we decided that women would not buy at high prices. We had the nerve to advertise that very fact. Furthermore, we offered all our customers a profit-sharing discount, if they would help us unload our stocks. An unheard-of proceeding, a method which earned for us the general disapproval of all other merchants, for whom we had spoiled the season.

However, many of us have discovered that it is impossible to get "anything for nothing," therefore, in order to supply our customers with fine style apparel NOW, which they can afford to buy, we had to sacrifice our profits, and perhaps the profits of other stores with it—a very regrettable but most effective means of supplying BETTER VALUES.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1919.

A GOOD PURPOSE, BUT—

Called into conference by the Mayor of Sacramento, some twenty heads of municipal governments in California are to discuss the problem of the high cost of living. Their purpose is to discover or devise means of reducing the living cost. This is a worthy purpose. The mayor of Sacramento and his companions in the conference deserve success. They are to be commended for pursuing the slightest hope of accomplishing something of value. But it should be known that the chances of achieving any practical result are few and slim. The municipalities can do very little in reducing the cost of living without the co-operation of the State government. And so far the State government has refused to do a single thing to ameliorate the cost of living.

Governor Stephens, it is true, issued a proclamation in which the gravity of the situation was recognized. He said it was important that something be attempted. But he stopped with his proclamation. That, as is so well known, was not worth the paper on which it was written, much less the valuable space given it by the newspapers of the State.

The State government has done nothing and there are no signs that it will do anything to make life easier for the consumer. The machinery of the State government is behind price-boosting organizations of producers and marketers. The poultry producers, the milk producers, and other profit-taking combinations have the open support of the State market bureau. Colonel Harris Weinstein, market commissioner, is their ablest and most successful defender. The conference of mayors has shown a true conception of the circumstances by excluding Colonel Weinstein from participation in the conference decisions.

Governor Stephens has declined to ask the legislature, which is to convene in special session tomorrow, to take up questions relating to the cost of living. The special session is to concern itself exclusively with the political problem of votes—votes in other States in the Union.

As before stated, the conference of mayors deserve the hearty cooperation of the consumers. But they cannot expect any help from the State government. They may get assurances of sympathy and the lip service of good wishes. But if they try to achieve any substantial reform they will later on be greeted with sardonic, superior condemnation from one State official and probably advice from the law department of the State that their proposed action is illegal.

THE BERGER CASE.

Unquestionably the lower house of Congress will adopt the recommendation of its election committee that Victor Berger of Wisconsin be deprived of his seat. There is nothing else to do, as Berger and his friends well know.

As the committee said in its report, the Wisconsin Socialist was guilty of a conscious, continuing purpose and intent to obstruct, hinder and embarrass the government of the United States in the prosecution of the war, thus giving aid and comfort to the enemy. Berger, says the report, was disloyal to the United States when its existence as a free and independent nation was at stake. The judgment of the election committee is supported by the record of the trial in the United States Court which resulted in Berger's conviction under the sedition law and sentence to confinement at hard labor in a federal prison.

The defense which Berger's counsel offered, and which the man himself frequently repeated, was net denied. Full the charges as but the claim that he was entitled to uphold his ideals. Apparently it was impossible for Berger to comprehend that the ideal first required of every citizen of this Republic is loyalty to the Republic when it is at war with another nation. To that ideal all contrary notions are inadmissible, inadvisable, conscience and national safety. And the election committee of Congress well said that it is inconceivable that any man violating that ideal should be rewarded for his unreasonable conduct with a seat in Congress.

Of course Berger, being a person of average intelligence, knows that he has offended grievously the laws and the patriotic people of the United States. His was not a political offense; it was a wartime crime against the nation. A native of Austria, he knew the perils he was inviting when he aligned himself against the government of his adopted country.

Berger's case has attracted more attention than most of the few thousand who adopted a similar view, a fact due to his prominence in the political life of Wisconsin and among a certain cult of internationalism in the country. But he cannot expect different treatment on that account. Neither can those who applaud or plead for him expect to escape the contempt due suborners of disloyalty and sedition.

VIOLATORS OF MARITIME LAW.

Officials of the Matson Steamship company yesterday filed complaint with the authorities that the Siberia Maru, a Japanese steamship in the trans-Pacific trade, had interfered continuously for three days with efforts of the Matson liner, Manoa, to obtain assistance for a disabled vessel at sea, the freighter Diablo. This is an offense in violation of the rules and practices of radio communication at sea. It is a serious offense and might have had serious results. The talkative Siberia Maru prevented the Manoa from reaching shore stations on the coast with requests for aid for the crippled freighter.

A report was published a few days ago of another episode of outrageous conduct on the part of Japanese officials with respect to international practice on the high seas. A San Francisco freight steamer entered a harbor of one of the islands of the Marshall archipelago—which Japan has just been awarded by the Paris peace treaty. Japanese soldiers on the island at first refused the captain of the steamer permission to anchor, even after he had explained that he was short of food to continue his voyage and wanted to make purchases. Then when he started to steam out of the harbor they ordered him to return, but refused him permission to land.

Being an American seaman and declining to submit to such a situation long, the captain went ashore to find out whether the attitude of the harbor officials was typical of all the Japanese authorities. The first response to his salutation on going ashore was a slap in the face by a Japanese gendarme. The prone position of the Oriental that immediately followed this insult prompted a little more respect in subsequent conversations, but the scandalous conduct of the Japanese officials in their new territory of the Marshall Islands was not thereby amended.

The act of the officials in refusing the steamer the relief needed, and in fact to open conversation with its captain, was a flagrant violation of international law and of the rule of common decency.

These incidents of Japanese transgression are not to be credited to ignorance. They spring from an inherent wanton disregard of citizens of other countries, of disrespect for the laws and rules adopted for the common good. If they are repeated often enough the impression that they are a part of a studied plan to offend and provoke protest will be inevitable.

Richmond citizens are to vote within a few days upon a proposal to issue $400,000 worth of bonds to finance that city's obligations to the federal government to help improve Richmond harbor. That the people of Richmond want better harbor facilities has been demonstrated in many ways, and especially by their request that Congress appropriate funds for the purpose. In completing the harbor development scheme the government requires that a certain portion of the necessary cost be borne by the municipality. That requirement must be met if Richmond is to have a better harbor. Perhaps it was possible to raise the money by other means than a bond issue, but apparently not. In any event, if the people do not approve the bond issue plan they must be prepared to raise the funds by direct taxation or abandon hope of federal aid in improving their harbor. The bond issue is not a large one and approval of it would seem to be the sensible course.

It has been four days now since a probable candidate for the Presidency was discussed. The next pronouncement ought to be interesting, but is not likely to come from the Democrats. It is too difficult in that party to see which way the wind is going to blow.

POLISHNESS STILL HIS IDEAL.

In the War Department, under advice from the Adjutant General, a new operation of what would be called a "war" was put on trial with only weak success. It was a "war" in that it was expected to have some effect on the minds of the class who were not weak but became weak when they were not naturally enough. As the Adjutant General referred, but in frequent repetition, has been preaching exactly the doctrines and making exactly the exhortations that were contained in the address to American soldiers which he was charged with having prepared for the Dusseldorf Speech.

On this week, in Chicago he made before the local Polish-American community a speech of a kind that would be called a "war" in that it was expected to have some effect on the minds of the class who were not weak but became weak when they were not naturally enough. As the Adjutant General referred, but in frequent repetition, has been preaching exactly the doctrines and making exactly the exhortations that were contained in the address to American soldiers which he was charged with having prepared for the Dusseldorf Speech.

NOTES and COMMENT

It ought not to pass unnoticed that somebody is satisfied with Congressional action on the peace pact. A despatch from Tokyo states that the Japanese are pleased over the vote in the Senate rejecting the Shantung amendment.

The British government is adopting a plan as to the Russians that could have been followed with humane results as to the Germans. It has given notice to Trotsky and other Soviet leaders that they will be held personally responsible for the treatment of British prisoners and other British citizens in Russia. Personal responsibility is quite different from national responsibility as to war acts.

Twenty mayors responded to the Sacramento mayor's invitation, and have assembled to discuss whether anything can be done to reduce prices. It is a worthy attempt, at least. Something is accomplished when the matter gets official consideration in this way.

Beauty and the beast get a sort of exemplification in those pictures that illustrate the stock show. The retching young lady who fondles the exhibit with a ring in its nose affords a contrast such as is seldom encountered in practical life.

The statistician has unhesitated his pencil and the return to the normal custom in the matter of light. He figures that if 110,000,000 persons used thirty cents worth of light because of the repeal of the emergency law somebody will lose $1,313,485 a day.

Guatemala gives a fair exemplification of the expression, "First in war and first in peace." It led the American Republics into the war, and is the first country on the American continent to ratify the treaty.

Judge Morrow's recommendation that Americanism be made a test for college degrees will meet with loyal approval. Desirability of unquestioned loyalty and sound Americanism in our great institutions of learning has been demonstrated in the not distant past.

We take account of the claim that Sir Isaac Newton's theory of gravitation is wrong, advanced by a very modern scientist. He has been experimenting and can prove it. He may have a base for his price of the present-day price of food. There is no doubt that it would at least be possible therefrom to disprove the theory that what goes up must come down.

It is exciting a good deal of interest, the coming of organized labor and farmers in convention. The rural worker who has been in the habit of going with the sun and getting after the chores are done will have "changed his spots" if he can bring himself to conform to an eight-hour schedule.

Present indications are that a strike of coal miners may not be averted, but this something is likely to be stirring if the attempt is made to prevent others, disposed to set out some fuel, from doing it. That is what the government seems to mean in its considerable preparations to meet contingencies.

The Richmond News is optimistic. "There is a great spiritual awakening going on in the hearts of the American people, a moral movement which frowns like a storm cloud upon depravity in general and dishonest politics in particular."

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS

There is a merry war on between the cotton ginners of the valley, and growers of the staple are interested spectators. The Globe Mills Company has cut the price of ginning to 20 cents per 100 pounds, but all other ginners are maintaining the 35-cent rate established at the beginning of the season. According to the San Francisco Chronicle, of the Sun of this city, the Globe Company endeavored to induce the independent ginners to enter into an agreement to raise the price to 50 cents, which they declined to do—Holtville Tribune.

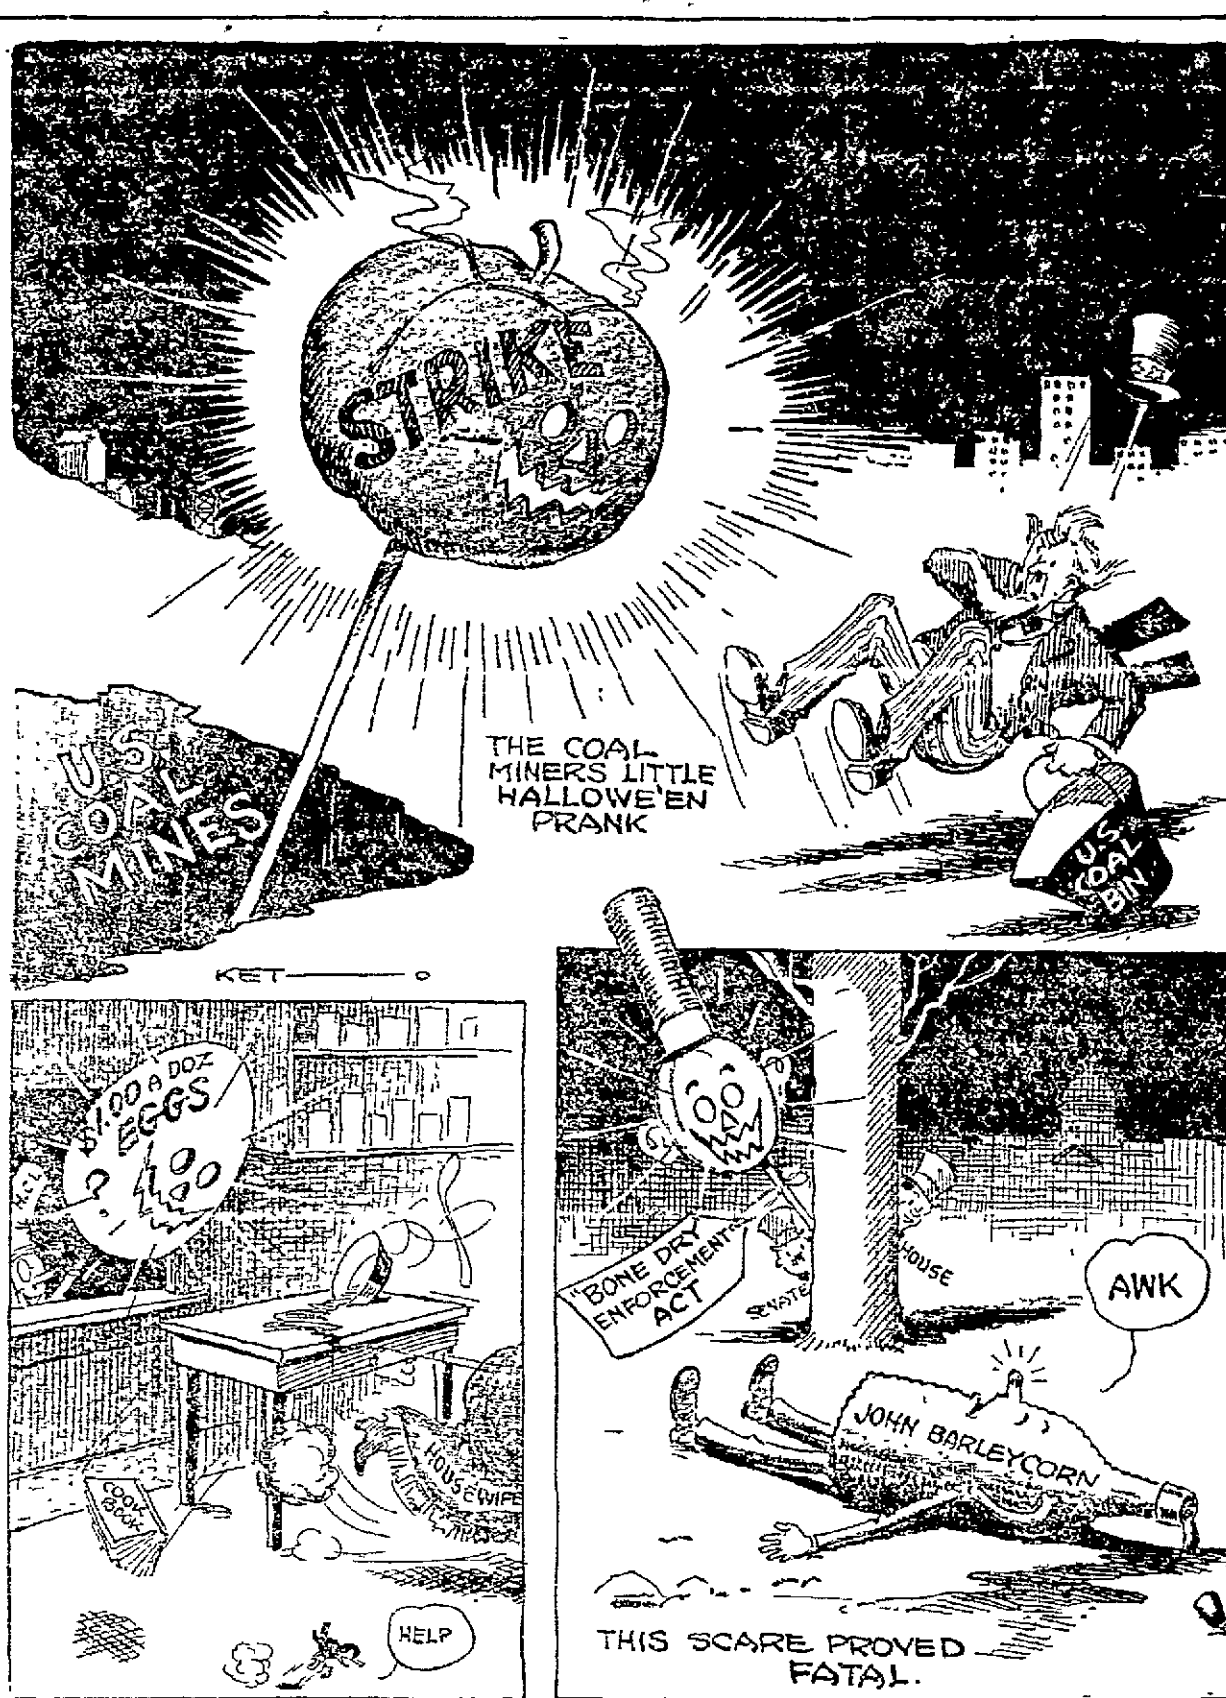

When Wisconsin ratified the prohibition amendment, and when California ratified the amendment prohibiting wine, under the leadership of the senator from Fresno county, the largest wine-producing district in the Western hemisphere, it was supposed that the limit of paragon had been reached. But now comes the word that Scotland is likely to go dry at the coming election. What will Scotland be without Scotch?—Fresno Republican.

President Wilson is not adding anything to the approval that the country undoubtedly feels for him by his verbal course in fighting the war prohibition law. That he had a perfect right to advise Congress to repeal that law, there can be no question. He also has a legal right to advise Congress to enforce the law, though the morals of that proceeding is somewhat questionable. But his final act, that of taking the occasion of his veto, to issue an announcement that the earliest possible moment would be seized to nullify the law, appears to be both petty and ill-considered—Fresno Republican.

In three products alone—almonds, prunes and peaches—the contribution of the Chico district to the rest of the world has brought the rest of the world nearer $3,000,000 to $4,000,000. At going prices it will cost the rest of the world nearer $3,000,000 to $4,000,000 to obtain it—Chico Enterprise.

Between 600 and 700 acres of Miller & Lux land have been disposed of since May for upwards of $100,000. The sales are of the Los Amigos rancho, near Gilroy, and the property between Maxwell and Mountain View, in Santa Clara county.—Los Banos Enterprise.

JACK O'LANTERN TIME!

PASSING OF A SHOWMAN

Of the seven Ringling brothers Alfred T., who died Tuesday at his home in New Jersey, was the fifth to die. John Ringling and Charles Ringling are left of the famous family which fought the great circuses of the past and absorbed them. In the shows they own the Barnum & Bailey and the Forepaugh-Sells enterprises.

Unlike Barnum the Ringlings were circus men from their youth. Barnum was a speculator who turned his hand to anything which gave promise of profit. His success as a showman was built on successes and failures in many other fields. The Ringling boys swapped a shift they had tied of for a pony, and started a "show" under a makeshift tent, admission to which was bought with pins. Soon pennies replaced the pins, and the family was started on its career. In the '30s the brothers had a wagon show, trading largely on the interest aroused by the advertising campaigns of the great circuses of those days. The brothers were enterprising, shrewd, united. What other circus men had to hire strangers to do they did themselves. There was a Ringling to supervise every department of their show, a Ringling to protect every Ringling interest. The family was a unique, perhaps unique. Certainly there have been few enterprises brought up from nothing to great importance by a family of seven boys, all joined together in the same calling.

Ringling made the modern American circus possible. Without them it could not cover the territory it does with the amount of machinery, the tents, the menagerie, the horses, the laborers, the managers, the athletes it must hire. Perhaps a day will come when motor trucks will take the place of railroad trains, a show transported through the air. A circus remains essentially unchanged in the entertainment of every modern improvement. It must always be up with the times.

It is said that the Ringlings started their circus in the snow business with less than $200 capital. This may be true. They had, however, something better than money. Money can be earned or borrowed. The Ringlings had grit, persistence, initiative, unflagging industry. These qualities cannot be borrowed. They cannot be improved. With them men achieve success, as the Ringlings did in the circus, and difficult business of running a circus without them real success is impossible—New York Sun.

HEALTH and HAPPINESS

What Science Suggests

To Aid Victims of Shock

By DR. LEONARD W. HIRSHBERG, A. B., M. D., (Johns Hopkins University.)

Shock is described as "a merciful provision of nature to prevent suffering on the part of injured people." Whether the shock received is due to loss of blood, to the feelings and the glands, as in shell shock, or other profound sensation, it is apt to be dangerous. A pale face, a dull facial expression, a cold, clammy skin, a small pulse and indifference to his surroundings are symptoms of shock.

Animals go into a state of shock by instinct and habit. When one beast seizes another as prey, the victim becomes numb and feels no pain. When a dog seizes a cat, the cat becomes numb and feels no pain. When a man is injured, the shock is a merciful provision of nature to prevent suffering on the part of injured people.

If pain is present, as "when a person makes much continuous crying after an accident, it is probable that his condition is not dangerous. The seriously injured individual lies quiet and may escape notice on account of his apparent indifference to what has happened. Where a number of persons have been hurt it is generally a safe rule to give aid first to those who are evidently gravely injured, but making the least complaint."

The symptoms of shock give a fairly clear idea as to what the treatment should be. The body is cold, hence it should be warmly covered, the patient lying in a recumbent position with the head low. External heat should be immediately applied by means of hot water bottles, jars or other containers filled with hot water. These should be placed along side of and between the legs and around the feet. In emergencies hot bricks or even hot stones can be used. Great care should be taken that the patient is not burnt by these appliances, however, and they should be well wrapped with towels, oiled clothing or similar material and never placed in direct contact with the skin.

Liquor in shock is of questionable value. If no other stimulants are available, however, a moderate-sized drink of whiskey may be given in warm water. It should not be repeated, because in overdoses it tends to increase the general depression.

Unconscious patients cannot be given stimulants by the mouth, in which case smelling salts should be held under the nose or a few drops of ammonia water sprinkled on a handkerchief and the patient allowed to inhale the fumes at intervals a minute apart.

There are other forms of treatment for shock, but they are only available to the skilled physician. Raising the legs and never placing the extremities toward the heart, to encourage the flow of blood to the organ is sometimes useful, but these measures are only applicable when the patient is in a warm room.

Shock is sometimes due to concealed hemorrhage, and this should always be looked for with great care. A patient should never be moved while he is in shock or disturbed in any way until he is absolutely unconscious and necessary to life. This, of course, does not apply to putting a man in an ambulance and taking him on a short trip to a hospital, where he can receive very much better treatment.

You can tell that the patient is recovering from shock by the disappearance of the symptoms. The face recovers its natural color, the skin becomes dry, the respiration full and regular and the pulse, as felt at the wrist, becomes stronger and slower. When the symptoms of shock have disappeared it is then safe to move the patient or to undertake other measures necessary for his treatment.

In recovery from shock, vomiting often occurs. If an unconscious person starts to vomit, always turn his head to one side. The vomit, if it runs out of the mouth and does not get back into the wind-

SABOTAGE HINTED IN GERMAN MILLS

BERLIN, Oct. 31.—The decision of the employers in the German metal industry to limit the powers of the workers' councils as to control and direction of the business, was met today by a threat of the workmen, most of whom are on strike, to call a general strike. The strike leaders are hinting at "sabotage and hold" if a crisis comes.

Would Jail King for Board Bill Students One on Hypothetical Case

BERKELEY, Oct. 31.—College students have little use for kings and monarchial officials.

This was proven today during an examination held at the University of California, in which a number of law students were questioned as to the manner in which they would deal with King Albert of Belgium and his royal party in case they endeavored to "beat their board bill" while visiting this state.

The point at issue was a legal technicality, but the students in the majority, cast aside all rules of law in the efforts to see that the king should be made to pay the same penalty as any other person of the type who tries to "beat his board."

Ignoring the principles of international law and all other legal rulings, the students almost unanimously decided that the king should be made to pay or take the consequences of having his baggage held; of being put in jail, or of having to answer in a suit for damages to recover the amount of the debt.

Fines are credited with being the most thrifty of all peoples represented in the mines and lumber camps.

CALIFORNIANS LAG IN STATE GUARD ACTION

Sister Commonwealth Along
Pacific Coast Show Speed;
Additional Legislation Now
Expected to Speed Up Work

California is lagging behind other Pacific Coast States in the reorganization of its National Guard, it is announced, but a campaign now is being put under way which is expected soon to place this State in the lead.

Congress appropriated this year for a guard comprising 200 men for each Senator and Congressman, or a total of 126,000 men. California's quota for this year is 3500 men, but thus far only six companies of infantry, or about 450 men, have been raised. Washington has raised a regiment of infantry of 1150 men, and Oregon a regiment of 1050 men.

Additional State legislation to stimulate interest in the National Guard is being introduced at the next regular session of the California Legislature. There are now authorized for California:

Twelve Companies Coast Artillery; one regiment infantry two troops cavalry, one battalion field artillery; one battalion engineers one signal company (radio), one field hospital company (headquarters and motorized section only), and one ambulance company headquarters and motorized section only.

APPLE JUICE WITH KICK IS LAWFUL DRINK

Anyone May Make It, if No
Alcohol is Added; Corkage
Charge is Held Illegal; Ruling
Hits the Cafe Business

Specific rules for enforcement of war-time prohibition were put into effect today, following the return of Justus S. Wardell, internal revenue collector, from a trip to Nevada. Wardell immediately went into conference with E. C. Yellowley, internal revenue collector in charge of the "dry" squads, John L. Flynn, chief deputy, and William A. Kelly, chief field officer.

It was announced that the sale of all beverages containing more than a half of one per cent alcohol would be stopped at once.

One ruling is expected to discourage the practice of persons bringing their own liquor to clubs and cafes. Wardell believes that a "corkage" charge such as restaurants and clubs have instituted for serving patrons with their own liquor is a "contributory sale" and hence illegal. A waiter may not be paid for this service.

There is one intoxicating beverage that the law doesn't touch is another feature of the rules as interpreted by Yellowley. This is hard cider. Said Yellowley:

"Cider, if made of pure apple juice with no added alcohol other than that found in the fruit, is a lawful beverage. If in the process of time it becomes otherwise than non-alcoholic and does so without the artificial addition of alcohol, it remains a lawful beverage and any one may make it."

Mooney Fund Fight Explained by Nolan

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—Local committees, appointed at Seattle and elsewhere to collect funds for the Mooney defense fund, are blamed by E. D. Nolan, secretary of the International Workers' Defense league, for reflections upon the defense fund management expressed by northern labor bodies. Washington, Idaho and Oregon collections were made, he says, by a committee appointed by the Seattle labor council.

This committee was dismissed some time ago," says Nolan, "when it exceeded its rights and privileges."

The Seattle criticism, voiced by President William Shatt of the Washington State Federation of Labor, included advice to labor bodies generally in the northwest to contribute no more to the Mooney defense.

GEMS WORTH $10,000 TAKEN FROM HOTEL

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—Secrecy is maintained by the police today in their investigation of a $10,000 jewelry theft reported last night by E. E. Oulashin, commercial agent, living at the Chit hotel with his wife and child.

Oulashin said the gems, which included some fine diamonds, were stolen from his room. Detectives James Coffey and John Manion were assigned to the case and questioned a Japanese servant but did not arrest him.

At a late hour, Oulashin, his wife and child accompanied the detectives on a mystery tour excursion, returning just before midnight. Details of the robbery and description

Gypsy Is Accused of Kidnaping $600 Is Paid for Wife, Charge

Just as the world seems all concerned in Bolshevism and peace conferences and strikes, along comes the Gypsy again, with kidnapping, love tales and customs strange to show that there are some things the same of time does not change.

Gypsy brides bring better price in California than in Oregon and therefore jump the latest tale of the wandering tribes of Norway.

The Gypsies, who have a liking for the country around and near Oakland particularly Emeryville, have received news from Portland, Oregon, of trouble which has overtaken some of the prominent members of their tribe.

Steve John, it seems has been arrested charged with kidnaping his 17-year-old daughter, Lakoutch.

Some of the jewels are being kept secret. Oulashin was planning to leave for Alaska Saturday as a peace officer.

Bukouche's mother-in-law, Rosa Mark, swore to the complaint. She asserts that she paid Steve John $600 for his daughter for a wife for her son, Michael Mark. The couple said according to Roman marriage law, and all went well, it is said, until Steve John came to California and found customers willing to pay much more than $600 for marriageable daughters. So he is alleged to have stolen his daughter from her husband.

John Mark said she might be willing to consent to her daughter-in-law's departure for the California market if Steve John would return the $600, but this, she charged, the Gypsy declined to do.

Now, there is talk of more serious matters among the Gypsies, but there is a strange parallel between the Portland case and that of Steve Mark in Oakland in 1915. Marks was a member of Ephraim John's band of Brazilian Gypsies. Adams, a Gypsy king, charged that he had paid $3000 to Steve Marks for his daughter, but that the seller failed to deliver. So he demanded his money back. The case went into court and out again and finally was swallowed up in the great gulch of "past matters."

GAINS MADE IN ROOSEVELT FUND DRIVE

The most encouraging reports from organizations and individuals since the Roosevelt Memorial campaign began in the Eastbay region were heard yesterday during a luncheon at which Edward Brown, Western field representative of the Roosevelt Memorial Association was chief guest.

John Rau, John Harris, P. Herbert and G. D. Clark, representing a working committee from the American Legion, announced that they had collected $257.21 that they expected to reach the $500 mark.

Roy Munsell, secretary of the class of 1893, the members of which were presented with their diplomas by Theodore Roosevelt, reported that the class was responding and that a good subscription could be expected from it.

The Rev. William Kenney Tower of the First Baptist church outlined a plan of campaign through the Sunday schools.

"I am convinced that Oakland will make a fine record in the fund drive," he said. "You have made a splendid start. All that you have to do now is to capitalize the experience and the organization that you have and I am confident that it will raise its amount of money."

An analysis of the subscriptions up until today shows that the average subscription to date amounts to $4.50 an individual.

"That is a wonderful average and now let every one make their dollar contributions and we will soon reach the amount we want," announced Attorney John W. Stetson in charge of the Oakland county campaign.

Splendid results were reported from the various big stores.

OIL LANDS BILL PASSED BY HOUSE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Legislation for the leasing of Government-owned mineral lands was advanced toward final enactment yesterday by the House in passing, by a vote of 169 to 89, the oil and coal land leasing bill. The measure now goes to conference.

Vain efforts were made by Representatives Raker of California and Griffin of New York, Democrats, to incorporate in the House bill provisions similar to the House amendment of the Senate measure, which proponents urged would prevent monopolizing control of the leased lands.

Little change was made in the House committee draft, the hardest-fought-for amendment being that relating to the distribution of money received as royalties from the lands instead of approving the committee provision for equal distribution of these funds between the reclamation fund and the States, after deducting 10 per cent for administering the law, the House accepted an amendment allowing 20 per cent to the reclamation fund, 30 per cent to the States and 10 per cent for administration.

Though a complete redraft of the Senate bill the House measure contains many provisions which are the same as in the Senate draft. Under both bills title to the lands is retained by the government, but leasing is permitted on royalty basis.

The House bill, unlike the Senate measure, provides only for a fixed minimum royalty, leaving the maximum royalty to be determined by the Secretary of the Interior.

DIVORCE CASES IN PRUSSIA ARE ON INCREASE

BERLIN, Oct. 31.—Divorces in Prussia have increased notably since the war, according to statistics issued by the authorities. Only those who apply to experienced attorneys and press for alimony and damages, ever collect, because financial compensation is not taken up at the divorce trial, and relatively few pursue the matter after the divorce has been granted. However, the alimony is subject to taxation.

CREEL ACCOUNTS CHAOTIC REPORT

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The Committee on Public Information, headed by George Creel, cost the government about $6,600,000 on the race of its chaotic records, according to official reports now before Congress, which say the committee's affairs can not be wound up for six months because of the confusion.

Chairman Creel and other officials of the committee are charged with gross negligence in handling the government's funds in a report by E. K. Ellsworth, of the Council of National Defense, appointed to liquidate the committee's affairs.

The committee issued hundreds of checks for individual expenses far in excess of the $100,000 maximum limit fixed by Congress, the report says. They ranged it adds from $100 to $500,000. Ellsworth said he was refusing to pay some accounts approved by Chairman Creel.

Ellsworth said he found a balance of about $1,000,000 left out of the $6,600,000 from President Wilson's special war fund and $1,350,000 paid by Congress, included in the committee's assets. Unpaid bills aggregating several hundred thousands of dollars were still in the committee's files, he said, some of them many months old.

There were also checks and money orders payable to the committee aggregating $75,000 dated last spring upon which collection had not been attempted, and several thousands worth of checks "thrown in file cases without any effort to realize on them."

Other negotiable papers were found "in great trays" and on the floor in the office of E. H. Hobbs, former disbursing officer and business manager of the committee, and additional funds in New York and Washington banks and in Russian banks captured by the Bolsheviks, the report said. One item of $10,000 in the hands of a New York auctioneer was listed. "Several thousand dollars with an army officer in Russia," and other funds left with consuls in Russia and France.

FIVE STATES TO ELECT GOVERNORS

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Five States—Maine, Massachusetts, Jersey, Maryland, Kentucky and Mississippi—will elect governors at the "off year" elections to be held Tuesday, November 4. The only congressional election throughout the country will be on November 3 in the Fifth district of Oklahoma, where a successor will be chosen to the late Representative Joseph B. Thompson.

Prohibition is the chief issue in the other elections, where the voters will be called upon to vote on two amendments and two referendums on the subject. The referendums relate to the legislation ratification of the Federal prohibition amendment and the prohibition enforcement act passed by the last legislature.

The amendments propose that 275 per cent liquor shall not be defined as intoxicating and that constitutional State-wide prohibition be repealed.

KATO EXPECTS CO-OPERATION OF U.S.-JAPAN

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—That the newly announced compact of Japanese and American capital, led by J. P. Morgan & Co. for the exploitation of Far Eastern resources will work to a better understanding between the two nations is the belief of Taisuya Kato, chief delegate of the Japanese interests involved to the American financiers. Kato has been for six months in this country. He is director of several railroads and mining companies in Manchuria.

"This co-operation of American and Japanese capital," he says, "will do away with any psychological misunderstandings. I have been assured that our American associates have the fullest confidence in the integrity of Japan's intentions, especially toward Shantung and China. I wish to disclaim, however, any political interpretation of this plan."

Kato says he has arrived at a complete plan of co-operation with the house of Morgan. Their combined resources will be applied to the exploitation of Siberian mines, development of Siberian lumber supplies, railroad building in Siberia and Manchuria, exploitation of coal fields, electrification where possible, operation of steamship lines and comparable developments. Development of agricultural resources in Manchuria will be among the important works.

The Use of Chinese Herbs

Few Americans realize that the Chinese herb treatments are the oldest form of the healing art and for centuries the Chinese, acknowledged as one of the strongest and healthiest races on the earth, have used nothing but native herbs in the treatment of all forms of disease.

As near as can be determined, the foundation of the Chinese school of herb treatments was laid about 4500 years ago by Shin Nung, then emperor of China. This emperor, knowing of the medicinal value of herbs and anxious to relieve the sufferings of his subjects, went among the mountains collecting herbs, roots and barks, afterward testing their effect on animals.

Gradually becoming more and more familiar with what could be accomplished through the use of these medicinal herbs, Emperor Shin Nung began their use—internally and externally—in the simpler forms of disease until he had definitely established a foundation on which has been built the herbal treatments used by the Chinese.

Hing Yon succeeded Shin Nung to the throne of China, and as emperor aided and encouraged the study of herbs and their use in every way possible. He was a most liberal patron of science as well as being a deep student himself. Hing Yon was the inventor of the marine compass and editor of Noey Giang ("The Internal System"), a work of 18 volumes covering the parts and functions of the internal organs of the human body. These books were wonderfully prepared and contain much which has been, quite recently, proven true by the investigation of western scientists.

Bin Seck, in writing his book, Neun Giang ("The Revelation of Difficulties"), made a valuable contribution to Chinese medical learning about 2300 years ago.

About 1900 years ago, Jeang Jong Kiang, who, in medicine, was the equal of Confucius in philosophy, wrote the Dop Bing Shen Hon Leun ("The Grippe Book"), and the Kim Quoi Yoke Tom Giang (which literally translated is "The Gold Case with the Jade Letter Apocalypse"), containing the results of his study of disease and its cure through herb treatments.

The greatest of the Chinese physicians were the only ones who fully appreciated the importance of the blood and the digestive organs in physical well being, and the recent studies and experiments of both French and American scientists have added confirmation to the Chinese teachings of healthy glands in order that the individual be able to resist the attacks of disease and old age.

The discovery, in China, of the important part played by the glands in the human body, was made many centuries ago by Chung Kung. The original copy of his book setting forth his discovery was destroyed by the Chinese emperor, Chun Chee, known in Chinese history as a tyrant and autocrat and who built the great wall of China. He also had many other valuable books and treatises burned and slaughtered 465 professors and doctors in order to keep the people of China in ignorance and perpetuate his reign.

For over 2000 years the Chinese physicians have known of the importance of the glands which recently have received so much advertising in the western press.

In the early part of the nineteenth century Chan Sen Yon was recognized as being one of China's greatest physicians.

His system of treatment is called, among the Chinese, as Kim Fur ("The Golden Rule") and is used by 95 per cent of the modern Chinese physicians. Y. L. Chan, a grand-nephew of Chan Sen Yon, has inherited his wonderful talent and has practiced his profession with the greatest success and is now located in Oakland.

THIN PEOPLE NEED BITRO- PHOSPHATE

Increases Weight, Strength and Nerve Force in Two Weeks'
Time in Many Instances.

The average person is beginning to realize more and more that the lack of physical strength and nerve exhaustion (frequently evidenced by excessive thinness) are the direct cause not only of the failure to succeed in life's struggle for the necessities of existence, but also for the handicaps in one's social aspirations. Compare the thin, sickly, angular frame with the well, rounded form which is usually associated with the bloom of health and attractiveness.

That millions of people are conscious of this handicap is evident from the continued appearance in newspapers and magazines of many suggestions proposing various remedies in food or medicine or exercises, either of which might or might not be appropriate for a given case.

Authorities, however, agree that healthy nerve tissue is absolutely essential to a strong, robust body and mind. Weak nerves, while indicated by a multitude of different symptoms, more immediately and generally result in lack of energy, sleeplessness, irritability, depression, etc., which conditions gradually consume the healthy flesh, leaving ugly hollows, a flat chest, bony neck and scrawny arms and legs.

Our bodies need more phosphate than most of them are able to extract from the foods we eat now. Days, and many opinions affirm that there is nothing which may be taken into the human system that so effectively supplies this deficiency as the pure organic phosphate known as Bitro-phosphate and sold by food druggists everywhere.

The essential phosphoric food elements in Bitro-phosphate assimilated by the nerve cells should soon produce a pleasing change in nerve energy and hence increased vitality and strength. With the burdens of nervousness, sleeplessness, lack of energy, etc., lifted, normal weight with its attractive fullness and ruddy glow of health replaces the former picture of skin and bones. Miss Georgia Hamilton, who was once thin and frail, reporting her own experience, writes: "Bitro-Phosphate has brought a magic transformation with me. I gained 15 pounds and never before felt so well."

CAUTION:—Although Bitro-Phosphate is unexcelled for the relief of nervousness and attendant decrease weight, one should watch the scales while taking it unless it is the desire to put on flesh.—Advertisement.

Farrar Thrashes Another Woman to Save Prince's Life

GERALDINE FARRAR, who fights for love in "The World and Its Woman."

"The World and Its Woman," Farrar Film, Coming to American Theater

"For the colonel's lady and Judy O'Grady are one and the same under the skin." So said Rudyard Kipling—and justly so. Geraldine Farrar proves it in her latest role of "The Woman" in "The World and Its Woman," which begins a week's run at the American theater next Sunday. A refined American girl—opera singer—always gentle, compassionate, kind—Marceline Warren (Geraldine Farrar) turns things when the life of her prince-lover hangs in the balance. She administers a terrible beating, American fashion, to another woman who stands in the way of their escape from chaos and horror. The Farrar fights in "Garden" and "The Hell Cat" are Sunday school affairs beside the fistic duel in "The World and Its Woman."—Advertisement.

FOUR CITIES OPEN FIGHT ON WATER RULING

The opening gun in the campaign of the Eastbay cities to combat the Railroad Commission's water rate decision granting a basic charge to the Eastbay Water company for fire protection has been fired with the filing with the commission of applications for a re-hearing of the case. This was done by City Attorney H. L. Hagan in behalf of Oakland yesterday afternoon following the city council's morning action authorizing him to take steps to resist the decision.

Similar action has been taken by Berkeley, Richmond and Alameda, according to Hagan, and the applications have been filed separately, but the hearings are to be held concurrently. The city attorneys of the four cities have agreed that in the case of failure of this method of attack an appeal is to be taken to the supreme court.

Meanwhile the question of a more desirable water supply for the Eastbay municipalities is to be investigated from every available source. Hagan says, commencing with the inspection trip to be made to the Hetch-Hetchy project next week by Eastbay officials and members of the Eastbay Water commission. Oakland's delegation on the trip will consist of City Attorney H. L. Hagan and City Engineer Marston Campbell, representing the Water Commission, and Councilman W. H. Edwards, W. J. Bagus, Frederick Soderberg and F. F. Morse.

Hagan yesterday notified the Oakland council that a decision is necessary regarding the Hetch-Hetchy project because plans are under way for the installation of the service system and the main service pipes must be enlarged if the Eastbay cities join San Francisco in the plan.

Attorneys H. C. McPike and A. J. Woolsey announced today that they will file an appeal in the near future from the decision of Superior Judge Dudley Kinsell upholding the city council in declaring forfeited the $2500 deposited by Woolsey in connection with his application for a lease on the Oakland waterfront.

The decision was announced by Judge Kinsell several weeks ago. The preparation by the attorneys now of the findings and the signature of the court opens the way for a battle in the Supreme Court.

Woolsey was awarded the lease by the council, but did not accept it. His deposit was retained by the city. He offered to pay for the expense of the investigation, mainly for authenticating for bids on the lease and brought suit to recover the $2500.

Inspection of Mail Carriers Started

Work of the semi-annual inspection of mail carriers is progressing satisfactorily, according to Postmaster Joseph J. Rosborough. Personal inspection is being made at the nine branches of the local postoffice. Postmaster Rosborough, Chester West, temporary superintendent of mails, and S. F. Wagner, assistant superintendent of mails, inspected the carriers at the Piedmont branch office today.

In addition to the main office, inspections are to be made in West Oakland, Emeryville, Station E, Piedmont; Station D, East Oakland; Fruitvale, Elmhurst and San Leandro. At each of the branches Rosborough delivers a short talk to the assembled carriers.

Prominent Eastbay Men and Women Believe in Divorce If 'Love Flies Out the Window'

If marriage is the customary sequel of falling in love, should not divorce be the necessary result of falling out of love? The question has been precipitated by Professor Earl Barnes, formerly of Stanford University. It has aroused a flurry of interested discussion among Eastbay men and women alike. There are ayes and noes aplenty, some vociferous, some calm, but all very determined.

"It's a monstrous thing," Professor Barnes told delegates to a Boston social work conference yesterday, "for any man and woman to live in the close intimacy of married life if they do not love each other ardently."

Professor Barnes proposed compulsory divorce for couples who have fallen out of love. That compulsory divorce idea and his exact meaning when he says "love ardently" are the only uncertainties of the local discussion. Among the women folks, particularly, there is a doubt about the compulsory part of it and a question about the "love ardently" phrase.

"To love ardently," comments Mrs. Bertram J. Eddy, leader in Oakland Civic Center and prominent work woman, "is to be wretchedly unhappy. After the glamour has worn out and a man and woman settle down to daily normal living what is in both of them will begin to show. If there remain admiration, respect, high principles, they are far happier than when they are what is called 'ardently' in love. Respect and admiration contribute to a perfect and wonderful life. If they are not congenial, if they are incompatible, if things are disagreeable and unpleasant at home, it is the best thing in the world that man and wife should separate. It is not a sin, or even lack of respect for each other, should grow up, then it is indeed criminal for them to live together."

"I absolutely disagree with the academic gentleman," said Postmaster Joseph J. Rosborough. "He is trying to substitute human for divine law, and it cannot be done. I don't know as I should establish a compulsory law of divorce for such situations," he said, "but I do believe it is wrong for a couple to try to get along together after love has flown out the window. There is no justice to either of them in the continuance of relationship, the reason for being which has disappeared."

CONTRIBUTORY CAUSES. "There are certain circumstances in which the continuance of such love as justifies marriage is impossible, just as there are persons for whom failure in marriage seems to be foreordained. In the work of my office I have found that crime and poverty, failure in marriage and failure in industry very often are associated. The man who is constitutionally incapable displays his incapability in many lines. Broken homes or broken houses: the one is to be expected of him as well as the other."

"It is mental and moral depredation for a man and woman to live together after they have ceased to love one another," Miss Martha Jones of Berkeley, secretary of the Women's Legislative Council of California and member of the executive board of the California Civic League, contributes to the symposium which Professor Barnes has inspired. "It is not for a third party or the state to step in and say absolutely that a husband and wife shall be divorced, however. Professor Barnes has said it all and I thoroughly agree with him, aside from the compulsory divorce idea. It is most unfortunate for children to be trained in an atmosphere of opposition and to be pulled back and forth between parents who are not in sympathy with each other. They lack in the discipline which a child needs to grow up into a good type of American citizen. Certainly, a couple who have ceased to hold affection for each other should not remain together."

WILLOWS, Oct. 31.—Drawers and lockers in two rooms of Judge Moody's home were ransacked, presumably for the purpose of securing legal papers. Judge Moody and his wife have been away for some time.

admission. "When God hath joined together, let no man put asunder. In other words, I am opposed to divorce for the grounds he cites as well as other grounds. I do believe that when it proves absolutely impossible for a married pair to get along together, when they find that marriage is no longer a possibility for them, they should separate; but I think that should end it. I believe, unless death cancels the contract they have made, neither has the moral right to wed again."

MRS. EVANS' THEORY

"When love is done, it is no use for a man and woman to try to live together," Mrs. J. W. Evans, active in the affairs of the Oakland Federation of Mothers' Clubs, says. "A man may appear an ideal before marriage. After the wedding he may develop traits a girl never dreamed of. The same may be true of the man. Why should they be doomed to everlasting unhappiness? By divorce they might be able to find the husband or wife who would make them tremendously happy. It is a sin and they are committing a crime if they continue their marriage. Even the children are better off if the mother and father, who do not love each other, separate. We see many men and women for whom we are sorry because they are trying to live together after they have no love for each other."

Professor Barnes found an ally in Leonard Compton, adult probation officer of the county, whose work brings him in close and constant touch with problems of the home as well as other human problems. He believes Professor Barnes comes pretty close to being right.

"I don't know as I should establish

GERMAN YOUTHS BOYCOTT FILMS

BERLIN, Oct. 31 (By the Associated Press).—Some relief from the "enlightenment" or "explanation" films that have been deluging Germany since the revolution is coming, though slowly, from an unexpected source—from boys and girls in a great many small cities who have seen one or more of the films and who have banded together to boycott them. Such organizations have been formed in Leipzig, Hamburg and in such Berlin suburbs as Friedensau, Lichterfelde and Lankwitz.

Yet such isolated protests against the entire system, and, as the Prussian minister president announced yesterday, there is no legal way of stopping the films except under the law against Jewish pictures and drawings.

Allied Victory is Celebrated in Brazil

RIO DE JANEIRO, Oct. 31.—The dinner and ball given here in celebration of the Allied victory, easily ranked as the biggest and most elaborate Anglo-American social affair ever held in this city. The invitations and tickets which bore American and British flags designated it as the "Victory" ball. The British and American colonies were represented in force. American Ambassador Morgan, the British minister, Sir Arthur Peel, Count Bodiani, the Italian ambassador, and practically all the foreign diplomats, attended, as well as many prominent Brazilians representing the social and official life of the city.

Eating and Drinking Annoy Actors British Theater Customs Opposed

LONDON, Oct. 31 (By The Associated Press).—Theater-goers in London are demanding that the war restriction prohibiting the sale of candy after 8 o'clock in the evening be withdrawn and have involved themselves in a controversy with some of the actors. The actors do not want candy sold in theaters and they wish the serving of tea and coffee could be eliminated during the performance.

After the first act of a matinee nearly everyone who does not go to the bar, has tea. By the end of the second act the bar is closed by war restriction and nearly everyone who did not have the tea after the first act has it then. The same situation obtains at the evening performance except that the excuse for numerous maids edging their way between rows of spectators with trays, is coffee, not tea.

Actors aver that many a quiet situation is ruined by someone dropping a spoon into a tea-cup or dropping the cup itself. Before the war restriction went into effect the actors were further irritated by the noise caused by crumpling of paper in which the candy is wrapped.

Explosion Kills 14 in Japanese Navy

TOKYO, Saturday, Oct. 25 (By the Associated Press).—The maneuvers of the Japanese navy, in which the emperor participated, were marred by an explosion today on the battleship Ryuga in Tokyo bay. Fourteen men were killed and thirty injured. The emperor was aboard the battleship Settsu. The maneuvers, which were the most elaborate in the history of the navy, included mimic battles and airplane attacks on coastal cities.

LEVIATHAN RETURNED

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Formal possession of the 60,000-ton steamship Leviathan was today transferred from the United States navy to the Shipping Board. The Leviathan, formerly the Vaterland of the Hamburg-American line, was seized here by the Shipping Board in 1917 and assigned to the navy for operation as a transport. The ship, at her Hoboken pier, is having restored her magnificent passenger equipment.

DRESS SUITS IN DEMAND BY U. C. STUDENTS

BERKELEY, Oct. 31.—Clothes may not make the man, but students of the University of California find that they have considerable importance. Social duties of college men are trying, and the need of possessing a dress suit causes a boom in the sales of this type of dress at the beginning of each semester at all of the local clothing stores.

Statistics from a local outfitter show that during the past month 53 dress suits have been delivered to college students.

Oakland Rifle Club Members Beat 2 Teams

Once more the Oakland Rifle Club has demonstrated that when it comes to making a team which is to defend the club's laurels they will render a good account of themselves. In proof whereof—some time ago the Oakland Rifle Club issued a challenge to all the civilian clubs around the bay to meet a picked team of the Oakland Rifle Club in a shooting match, and the only club to accept were the California Railroad Commission Rifle Club of San Francisco and the Roberts Island Rifle Club of Stockton. The teams met at Leona and held one of the most interesting competitions seen around the bay in many months. When the last shot was fired and the smoke cleared away, the respective scores totaled:

Oakland Rifle Club 1041 points
Cal. Railroad Com. Club, 1023 points
Roberts Island Rifle Club, 943 points

Now that the Oakland club team has shown such marked skill with the military rifle, they are looking for more opportunities to continue over this range, they will give a good account of themselves, for they have the makings of some good shots on their team.

The Roberts Island Club team has a perfectly good rifle in that many of their men had never shot over the range before and this fact accounts for their comparative low score. Given a little preliminary practice over this range, they will give a good account of themselves, for they have the makings of some good shots on their team.

The Oakland Rifle Club also held an annual banquet last night when the medal offered by the War Department and this match was won by J. C. Durrey with the excellent score of 13 points out of 150 possible, shooting 200, 300 and 500-yard ranges.

Boxers Want to Show at Vallejo

VALLEJO, Oct. 31.—Bob Moore, an Oakland boxer who tips the scale at 145 pounds, has written the management of the Vallejo Athletic Club asking for a match here. Moore scored a three-round knockout over Danny Franklin, a highly touted welter, at the Association club's last night, and from what can be learned he is a willing mixer and as good as he makes them. Moore may be matched with Hamilton Scott, who put up such a wonderful fight against Soldier Lari during the night, on the next card at the arena pavilion.

Jimmy Durrey, a 122-pounder who resides in Stockton, has been written the local promoters for a bout. Durrey wants to meet any boy his weight.

St. Joseph's Athletic Club Arranges Dance

Plans are nearing completion for the benefit ball to be given by the St. Joseph's Athletic Club assisted by the Oakland Council, No. 734, of the Order of Columbus at the Oakland Auditorium, Saturday evening, November 3. Several of the large fraternal orders and clubs about the bay have procured tickets for the occasion. The committee has secured a twenty-piece string instrument jazz orchestra for the orchestra and the enjoyable evening's entertainment is promised.

He's Called "Slats," But is a Game Kid

VALLEJO, Oct. 31.—"Slats" Fraser is the name of a local 120-pound boxer who is expected to make a name for himself in the ring. Fraser has been in an open challenge to the above effect. "Slats" claims he never boxed in the ring, but he is not drawn back for any boy his weight. This claim ought to have plenty of challenges coming his way before long.

Arrange Date for Mare Island Bouts

VALLEJO, Oct. 31.—The athletic board at the naval hospital has definitely set Wednesday, November 21, as the date for the next boxing show, and already the matchmaker has started to line-up a tentative card. Although the yard hospital athletic club has put over several swell shows, the plans for the next card call for something even better. The card will be ready for announcement early next month.

Togs of Pittsburg Win Series and Will Enjoy Duck Feed

Frank Taormina, manager of the Emmington Togs of Pittsburg, Cal., is now hoping that the Sunsets club of the same city is willing to admit the Togs to a better ball club. The Sunsets refused to concede Pittsburg club championship to the Togs, so Taormina arranged for a series of games, the team winning the first game, the Togs won the championship. The Togs won the first game with ease, and all that is required to find out how simple it was for them to put over the second win is to look at the score below.

"Red" Buckley set the Sunsets down with five hits and no runs, one runner reaching third and two scored. The final score was 13 to 0. The Cardinals, who started for the Sunsets, being batted from the box in the fourth inning. Buckley, third for the Togs, secured two hits, one a triple, besides handing nine chances without a boot.

Paris, Oct. 31.—Sensational charges that England is fomenting trouble in Turkey to crush the nationalist movement and secure a mandate for the country, now that it appears unlikely that the United States will become a mandatory are made in the magazine "New Europe" by Ebnerier, a French political writer, who has been studying conditions in Constantinople.

M. Ebnerier accuses England of corrupting high Turkish officials. He declares that Damad Ferid Pasha is under British control and remains in Constantinople, despite the fact that the unanimous opposition of the people who are supporting the nationalists. Turkish ministers who refused to do Damad's bidding are said to have been expelled only to be supplanted by almost forgotten reactionaries of the Abdul Hamid regime.

Basketball

The St. Joseph's Athletic club's unlimited basketball team turned out for practice last night in the club's gymnasium with thirteen recruits. The team is under the supervision of John Quinn, former St. Mary's basketball star, who is striving to get together the fastest quintet about the bay. It is too early for John to announce his team but he has such well-known players as White, former Y. M. C. A. 145-lb. crack center; Rowe, who played the forward position for the Emerald team for two seasons; Emmett Nolan, a spunky forward of the 130-pound St. Mary's team of two years ago; Vinnie Irish, the crack Technical High guard, who needs no introduction to the followers of basketball; John Kate, the Y. M. C. A. center, who was playing the utility role only because Mush Hjelte was on the team. Quinn himself will play the running guard position for which he was a star with the college team games have already been secured with several of the clubs about the bay and with the Olympic Club of San Francisco. Gedeon's Stars Held to Tie At Plymouth

JACKSON, Amador Co., Oct. 31.—The greatest game of ball ever staged in the county was offered the fans at Kelle Park Sunday. The battle lasted 12 innings and was practically a tight baseball. Because of the readjustment of time, it became necessary at 4:30 to discontinue the game on account of darkness. The score was Plymouth, Gedeon's All Stars 1.

To Max Wilds the glory and honor of the contest is conceded. He pitched big league ball against a big league team and far excelled his opponent, Lefty Mails. In the last two innings, he opened up his artillery with a barrage of spitballs and fanned five out of six. He allowed three crack all-star team but two hits. Eleven men struck out and three were walked.

The local boys backed up their star pitcher with perfect fielding, no errors being made.

Lefty Mails fanned seven and walked one. The Meters got seven clean hits.

Plymouth lost two chances to score while Bobbie White playing the leading role in each chance. In the fourth he rapped a double into right field but struck Eldred threw him out at home on Kunz's drive to center. In the ninth, Bob White singled to right and was sacrificed to second by Kunz. Tom White came through with a single to left but Horton returned the ball to Schang in time to stop Bob.

Plymouth's score came in the third inning. While Smith singled, Tobin hit a home run. Smith scored when White lined one down to O'Brien.

The visitor's tally came in the seventh. Les Shelan slammed a long drive over the key in left field setting a trip all around the bases.

The work of Gedeon's of the St. Louis Americans, on second was the sensation of the day. Many times the Plymouth boys had hot ones down on him but he spared them all.

The Plymouth Club appreciates the hospitality of Amador county. This support was the best given this season and imbued the team with spirit to win.

BREAD PRICES IN EASTBAY TO GO UP MONDAY

Bread prices to consumers in the Eastbay cities are to be increased next Monday, according to a statement issued by William Foley, secretary of the California Bakers' association.

Foley said that the price to dealers would be one and a half cents per pound, the consumer pay the additional half cent per pound.

Currently all the large baking establishments in San Francisco, Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley will be affected by the increase.

Foley said that the raise in price was made imperative by abnormal industrial and economic conditions. "The new increase will mean a 15 per cent increase in the price of bread over pre-war prices," Foley pointed out. "But in contrast, cognizance must be taken of the fact that the increase in price in flour over pre-war prices is 118 per cent, that the increase in the salaries of drivers has been 40 per cent, bakers 33 per cent, helpers 110 per cent, and foremen 68 per cent."

"In addition the supply of last year's flour, which has been used, is about exhausted. The price of the new sack of flour, we consider a further reason for asking for an increase."

As Dead as the Dodo

Every druggist in town—your druggist and everybody's druggist has noticed a great falling off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place.

"Calomel is dangerous and people know it, while Dodson's Liver Tone is perfectly safe and gives better results," said a prominent local druggist.

Take "Dodson's Liver Tone" Instead!

Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle costs but a few cents, and if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, you have only to ask for your money back.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults.

Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headache, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience all the next day like violent calomel. Take a dose of calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak, sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work! Take Dodson's Liver Tone instead and feel fine, full of vigor and ambition.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—

The former Princess Lyson Bulgheroni, whose ancestral estate is in southern France, not far from Monte Carlo, arrived here today on board the American transport Pocahontas, the bride of Lieutenant Commander O. M. Forster, U. S. N., of St. Louis.

"I don't want to be known as a princess any more," she told newspaper reporters. "I want to be plain Mrs. Forster from now on."

The couple met in 1913 when the officers of the battleship Utah were being entertained in France. They were married nine weeks ago.

ACCUSES EX-WIFE OF EXTRAVAGANCE

Declaring he has not purchased a pair of shoes, a shirt of any kind of clothing for two and one-half years, Dr. H. R. Alkin, Oakland physician, today vigorously opposed, before Superior Judge E. C. Robinson, the application of his former wife, Mrs. Annie Alkin, for a modification of her divorce decree raising her alimony from $100 to $200 a month.

Attorney Robert M. Fitzgerald, representing Mrs. Alkin, remarked that Dr. Alkin had purchased the clothing he was wearing at a very good store.

Judge Harry W. Pulcifer, appearing for Dr. Alkin, presented an affidavit in which the latter asserted he had given Mrs. Alkin the home in which she lives at 473 Hadden Road, and that he had bought clothing for the children and paid their hospital bills and expenses, in addition to the monthly payment of $100. He said he had wished to clear the mortgage on this home and secure for her a smaller one, as the large house is excessive, but that Mrs. Alkin refused to consider it. He said he had reduced the mortgage by $2000, borrowing the money, which he had not yet repaid.

Dr. Alkin declared his former wife had attempted to reduce his income by circulating false and malicious reports concerning him and advising his patients to employ another physician. He said his income is $425 a month, but that after paying the alimony and his operating expenses he has only $90 left for living expenses. He has remarried since the divorce decree was granted three years ago. He said his divorced wife is extravagant, giving costly parties at her home and spending money recklessly, until she has gone into debt $1000.

Judge Robinson asked Mrs. Alkin if she would not consent to trade her home for a smaller one, but she declared she would not. She said she had tried to sell it in vain. She said she had an independent income of $55 to $60 a month from renting rooms in her home, but that she could not care for her two children on this and the $100 alimony.

Judge Robinson continued the case two weeks to permit the attorneys to agree on a statement of Dr. Alkin's income and expenses.

Wife Ill, Husband Got Drunk, She Says

In her suit for divorce, Katrina Brown charges her husband, Horace with cruelty. She alleges, among other things, that one night, when she was suffering from influenza, her husband brought a drunken soldier to their house. Brown also was drunk. The men so terrified her that she rushed from the house wrapped in the bedclothes and took refuge with neighbors.

Alarm Clock Thief Finds New Victim

August Krohn, 78 Ninth street, was the fourth victim to receive a visit from the "alarm clock burglar" in two nights.

Krohn's clock last night, according to complaint filed at police headquarters. The thief also took an overcoat.

CITY IGNORES COURT PENSION CASE RULING

Another clash of legal opinion between city officials and the superior court that affects the entire municipal pension system and may result in an appeal being taken from the recent decision of Superior Judge A. F. St. Sure granting Herman Rumetsch, former police corporal, a writ of mandate against the police pension board for the payment of his pension allowance.

The present salary of the pension board is under the action of City Attorney H. L. Hagan and trustees of the pension board in withholding action under the court decision.

Two years ago Rumetsch was temporarily retired with the rank of corporal on half pay after being shot through the lungs in a struggle with an alleged mugger. After the recent salary increase for members of the police department he filed a claim for payment of his pension allowance under the new salary, instead of the old pay at the time of his retirement. It was decided to make a test case, and Rumetsch filed a petition for a writ of mandate through his attorney, Charles Bearusley, and was sustained in a decision by Superior Judge St. Sure.

If the decision stands a precedent will have been established under which all pensioners of the city will be able to secure pension allowances including increases in the pay of their rank since their retirement. In case the decision is retro-active, practically all city pensioners will be able to claim arrears.

Judge St. Sure's mandate has not yet been obeyed by the pension board, consisting of Mayor John L. Davis and Commissioners F. E. Morse and W. E. Edwards.

Cashier in Arrears $1000 on Alimony

Declaring that his client could not call on his wealthy mother-in-law for his debts, Senator Frank M. Carr today told Judge T. W. Harris that William Anderson, accused of failure to pay $1000 back alimony, had offered to pay $500 in cash and the balance as soon as possible. He said Anderson is now paying his former wife $50 a month, regularly and that she is acting as cashier for the Bank of Alameda County at Alvarado.

Attorney R. M. Fitzgerald, for Mrs. Anderson, said she wishes to keep her two children in Santa Clara University and urgently needs the money due.

Car Wrecks Auto; Woman is Uninjured

BERKELEY, Oct. 31.—Miss Letitia Newell, 2012 Eighth street, narrowly escaped serious injury at 11 o'clock last evening when a San Pablo avenue street car struck her automobile at Hopkins street.

Miss Newell had stopped her car to cross moving some pipes 1908 in front of her home. The car was damaged but she escaped unharmed.

The demand for "college-bred cooks" cannot be met. Communications from all parts of the State have been received by the bureau requesting that they recommend a college graduate to them as a cook.

The officers can find no reason for the sudden demand for college men of this type, unless it can be explained in the fact that the salaries demanded by these "artists" are now so high that they employers wish to be sure of securing the best that the State university can produce.

Judge Grants Change in Venue in Divorce

The petition of Mary T. Beeby for change of venue in the matter of the suit for divorce brought by her husband, Griffith R. Beeby, was granted by Judge Dudley Kinsell this morning.

The morning, the testimony Mrs. Beeby told the court her husband had said to her, "I'm going to keep the baby and I'll kill you, or any judge, or any attorney who tries to help me." She said she was terrified and fled from the house.

Alameda Man in Jungles of Haiti

ALAMEDA, Oct. 31.—Helping to drive out the bandits, who for a long time have infested the mountainous jungles of Haiti, Sergeant William Burns of Alameda, is serving with the U. S. Marine aviation force, which makes its headquarters at Port au Prince, the capital of the West Indian republic.

Sergeant Burns is a son of Mrs. Marie Burns, 3334 Fernside boulevard, this city.

Armour Fined $1100 for Hoarding Meat

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 31.—J. Ogden Armour, of Milwaukee, was fined $1100 in district court today after being charged with keeping 160,000 pounds of meat in cold storage for more than a year, in violation of the cold storage law.

'BRAIN RELATION TO MUSCLE' IS THESIS THEME

BERKELEY, Oct. 31.—Are brains necessary in baseball? Does knowledge of mental activities distinguish the football hero? How many kilowatts of brain power are necessary to kick a goal? Is the ideal football man a brawny giant with heavy muscles and nothing else, or is he able to hold his own in a discussion of Brownian motion, Pythagorean philosophy, and Byzantine mosaics?

These are the questions to be solved by Andy Smith, the university football coach, in an article entitled "The Athletic Mind," which he has written for the Occident, the University of California's monthly literary magazine, which is to appear on the campus November 5.

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in Time.

Three years ago I suffered from pain in my right side, so severe that I could not raise my feet from the floor. Pains would shoot down my limbs and through my back, and the doctor said I had an abscess. I was in bed two weeks with an icebag on my side and expected any day that I might have to go to a hospital for an operation. A friend came to see me and told me of your wonderful medicine—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I began taking it, and after taking six bottles, I felt well and strong, so my own work and do dressmaking for others. I cannot speak too highly of your medicine and recommend it to others who suffer with female trouble. It is a Godsend to ailing women, and you may use my name at any time."—Mrs. PRILLA HUNTER, 218 E. For years after he returned to Japan from American studies, Professor Yone Noguchi, Japanese poet, hoped to come back here for another visit with the master to whom he admitted his chief indebtedness, Joaquin Miller. But circumstances prevented him, and now that he has landed at last it is upon shores that he knows his beloved teacher no more.

Noguchi not only studied for some time with the "Poet of the Sierras," but even made his home with him at The Heights, in much the same manner that Takeshi Kano and his American wife, the former Gertrude Boyle, lived there at another time. The instructions he received from Miller, Noguchi always considered his chief asset, and Miller's name was almost the first he mentioned as he stepped yesterday from the Tenyo Maru upon the liner's arrival.

Noguchi has been gone from this country for seven years. The demise of his illustrious teacher occurred during that interval. He is a professor in Tokyo University. Besides his studies in literary studies in this country, he expects to give several lectures.

Also on the Tenyo Maru was one more of the Japanese singers whom this country, in Tamaki Mura, Onuki and others, has been delighted to honor. The new arrival is Mrs. Noshiko Hara, heralded as Nippon's most distinguished prima donna.

Travelers who have heard Madame Hara sing in her native land have been specially generous in their praise of her voice. She is well educated, comes from a prominent family and sings in Italian, French, German and English, as well as Japanese. Following a tour of this country she expects to go to Europe.
